St Margaret Mary Community Mass

at St Paul's Polish Church, Wakerley Rd, LE5 4WE

Lectionary Cycle: A2

Why are we keeping our Christmas Nativity

Scene up until Candlemas?

In joining with our friends in the Polish community, you'll see that we are keeping our Christmas Nativity scenes up until Candlemas (unless a very helpful parishioner accidentally takes it down). The tradition is rooted in the medieval period when Candlemas was the official end of the Christmas season. This practice was linked to the blessing of candles for the coming year and the use of candles in church services and symbolising the continuation of the festive spirit and the protection of the household.

Be a Good Neighbour

In these cold winter months, try to be mindful of friends, Neighbours and parishioners who may not be able to get out to shop for food or to visit family and friends and may be feeling lonely and isolated. Give them a call or, if you're able, knock their door to see if you can help and let them know they've not been forgotten.

Our Merged Parish

On 28th December our three parishes became one and we are now officially The Holy Family Parish Leicester with each of our churches keeping their individual names but now known as worshipping communities rather than parishes. You are unlikely to see many changes now that we are one parish as we were already working so closely as a cluster but very soon, our existing three bank accounts will be combined into one. If you give by Standing Order, please keep your eye on the newsletter for information about upcoming changes you will need to make to your standing order payments.
