Holy Family Parish Reducing to One Priest

Last week, Bishop Patrick confirmed that The Holy Family Parish, made up of the Sacred Heart & St Margaret Mary, Our Lady of Good Counsel and St Joseph's worshipping communities, will reduce to one priest. Congratulations to Fr Vitalis who will become a Parish Priest in September. He isn't able to say where at this time until the Diocesan moves are formally announced later in July. The reason for the reduction in priests is two-fold; there aren't enough young men answering the call to priesthood and the Government's visa policy is reducing the possibility of international priests coming to our Diocese. We have been preparing for this and our weekend Mass schedule enables one priest to cover all the Masses. However, you'll notice changes with one priest:

The 2026 Christmas Schedule

Christmas Eve: 4pm at St Joseph's, 10pm at Our Lady's & Midnight at Sacred Heart (normal Christmas Day schedule)

The 2027 Holy Week Schedule:

7pm Holy Thursday at St Joseph's, 3pm Good Friday at Sacred Heart & Our Lady's [Deacon Seamus presides], 7pm Easter Vigil at St Joseph's (normal Easter Day schedule) These will involve all those in ministries working together which will provide fruitful opportunities to reflect our nature as The Holy Family Parish in Leicester. Thank you to our retired priests who continue to provide help but they cannot be overworked to the point that will make them ill. They should be enjoying a well earned retirement as we make provision to provide for our own liturgies with the resources that we have at our disposal. I think it's a great opportunity but I realise that the transition will be difficult for many and we'll try to ease that as best as we can.

Fr David
