Sacrament of Reconciliation: After vigil Mass on a Saturday and Sunday or by appointment with the Priest
Psalter: Week 3. Weekday Cycle: Easter Season		WE ARE ONE IN THE SPIRIT
Saturday 31 May: The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Vigil Mass of 7th Sunday of Easter: 5.00pm STM: Carmen Tomas Gozalbez & Dec'd family members RIP 6.30pm ST: Int: Deceased members of the Quigley and Hayes family RIP		The readings for the final Sunday of Eastertide certainly have a sense of the drawing together what has gone before in order that something new can be born. The extract from the Book of Revelation gives the very last words of the Bible: Come Lord Jesus , and it is the cry that is on our lips as we await the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The account in the Acts of the Apostles of the martyrdom of Stephen is a sobering one in which the first Christian martyr witnesses to his faith. It is a reminder to us all that the commission to proclaim our faith is a radical one. So what does Jesus speak to us about in the gospel on this final Sunday of Eastertide?
Sunday 1 June : 7th Sunday of Easter: 9.30am SH: Int: Terry Brooks RIP 11.00am ST: Int: Mary Vincent RIP		The setting is once again the gathering with Jesus in the Upper Room on the night before he died. The evangelist has clearly recognised this event as cumulative in its effect. Jesus has expressed in both words and actions what he wants his disciples to become. No longer servants he tells us but friends, within whom he has made his home. We are to be branches on the vine, following his path for he is the way, the truth and the life. We do his will because he remains with us, and it is in him that we see the Father. He will send us the advocate to be with us and alongside us in the task he gives us. He shows us how we are to apply ourselves to this task this through deeds and acts of loving service as we are to wash each other's feet. This is the love with which he love us, and he calls us to reciprocate this love in our lives, as we undertake the commission he gives to each one of us. Now, as he draws all these different strands together, he brings them to a moment of communion.
Monday 2 June: Easter Feria 9.30am ST: Epifanio Cortes RIP 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet		The meal which they shared that night becomes the ritual which we share here today. The breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup is the fruition of all that he has brought to the Father. It is a sacred and sacramental moment of exchange, calling us together as one in the spirit of holiness through which the gifts of his love become present within us, unified through Father, Son and Spirit.
Tuesday 3 June: St Charles Lwanga & Companions 9.30 am ST Int: 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet		What then are we to take from this last Sunday gospel of Eastertide as the world in which we live seems so fractured and disunited? The call for us to be one can sound naïve and unrealistic, but Jesus is insistent that this should be our goal. So we must continue to follow his call and through our own example strive evermore earnestly to love as he loved and through this witness bring the message into the lives of those we encounter.
Wednesday 4 June : Easter Feria 9.30am SH: Service of Word & Holy Communion 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet		Come Holy Spirit fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love. Amen
Thursday 5 June : St Boniface of Crediton 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet		Deacon Anthony
Friday 6 June : St Norbert 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet 7.30pm STM: Int: Judith & Tom Foxon
Saturday 7 June: Easter Feria Vigil Mass of Pentecost Sunday : 5.00pm STM: Judith & Tom Foxon 6.30pm ST: Int: All the unknown faithful departed RIP
Sunday 8 June : Pentecost Sunday: 9.30am SH: Int: Stella & Family Thanksgiving 11.00am ST: International Pentecost Mass Int: Akmal Zahid & Family
