Sacrament of Reconciliation: After vigil Mass on a Saturday and Sunday or by appointment with the Priest

Psalter: Week 1 Weekday Cycle: Week 17 Year 1	THE GREAT PRAYER
Saturday 26 July: Sts Joachim & Anne Vigil Mass of 17th Sunday of the Year 5.00pm STM: Ints of Connie Nugent 6.30pm ST: Int: Martina Owens RIP	The prayer which Jesus taught his disciples is indeed the great prayer. In the Gospels of Matthew and Luke it appears in slightly differing versions, and today we have Luke's version. Neither Mark nor John reproduces it, but a careful examination of their gospels will reward you, as in Mark we hear Jesus telling his disciples: "when you stand in prayer forgive whatever you have against anybody so that your Father in heaven may forgive your failings too" (Mk Ch 11v25). That sounds familiar, doesn't it? It may also be why we stand at Mass to recite the Lord's prayer. John has set aside a whole Chapter (17) of his gospel and reflects on the themes of the prayer in a way which unfolds its inner meaning and mystery to the world. So, the prayer which Jesus gave us is to be found at the heart and centre of all that Jesus says and does for us and this is so important.
Sunday 27 July : 17th Sunday of the Year 9.30am SH: Int: 11.00am ST: Int: Daniel Obinna Umeh (Birthday Blessings) 2pm ST: African Mass 6.30pm ST: Sunday Vespers Evening Prayer of the Church led by Evangelisation Parish Team	In Matthew, the prayer is found in the teaching of Jesus known as the Sermon on the Mount. It comes among words that are very familiar to us. On the day of Ash Wednesday, we listen to Jesus offering his teaching on almsgiving, fasting and prayer. It is at this moment that the "Our Father" appears, as the way we should pray. Jesus' instruction is very precise – "do not babble as the pagans do" he tells us, in other words just allow the words he gives us to be sufficient for fulfilling our needs and satisfying our wants. In this way, the whole of the Sermon on the Mount is lived out.
Monday 28 July: Feria 9.30am ST. Carl Millinson RIP 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet	In Luke the prayer is found as an accompaniment for the journey which Jesus is embarking upon. He is walking towards Jerusalem and to the great climax of his ministry. The disciples have been sent on mission and return with hearts and minds alight with zeal for the message. They find Jesus at prayer and naturally in their eagerness to copy him, they ask to be given guidance for how best to pray. Jesus responds with his prayer.
Tuesday 29 July Sts Martha, Mary & Lazarus 9.30 am ST Int: 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet	So all four gospels can be said to resonate with this prayer of Jesus and we must ask ourselves how does it impact on my life. In the Office of Hours, the universal prayer of the Church, we pray it at morning and evening prayer. We pray it when we celebrate the Eucharist, and so it tops and tails and sits at the centre of all Christian worship. It is integral to who we are, where we are and whatever stages of our lives we are at.
Wednesday 30 July: Feria 9.30am SH: 3.00pm ST: Divine Mercy Chaplet	Our fellow Christians conclude it with a doxology – yours is the kingdom the power and the glory now and forever – it is a fitting summation which we also recite at Mass. It comes from an ancient Christian document contemporaneous with the gospels, known as the Didache or the Teaching. Kingdom, power and glory, evoke the place where the love of the Father will forever shine. Let that love be made present today.

Saints of the Week: This week the Church commemorates three Saints whose feast days fall on Tuesday 29 July: Sts. Mariha, Mary and Lazarus. It s clear that this family was very close to Jesus, indeed some have speculated that Lazarus may have been the 'beloved disciple' whom Jesus loved. The two sisters appear in Luke's Gospel as they provided Jesu with hospitality and refreshment on his journey to Jerusalem. In John's Gospel they offer profound witness to their belief and faith in Jesus as the one who can raise their brother Lazarus - a faith that is miraculously rewarded.

Thursday 31 July: St. Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556): A Spanish soldier whose life was radically changed by the trauma of war. Convalescing following a serious wound he read a life of Christ and was thereafter drawn to dedicate his life to following Jesus. Subsequently, along with like minded companions, he organised the group into a religious order that challenged the teachings of the Reformation which was spreading. The group became the Society if Jesus (Jesuits) famous for its Spiritual exercises.

Friday 1 August: St. Alphonsus Mary de'Ligouri (1696-1787): Born near Naples he studied the law but discerning a vocation he abandoned these studies for the priesthood. He is best known for founding the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (the Redemptorists) the provider of the Sunday Message!

Marriage and family life , especially helping parents pass on the faith and rediscover the grace of the sacrament of marriage. Youth engagement , especially as other parallel parish initiatives involving music or social activities take shape. Outreach to the elderly, sick, or those approaching end of life.
