

Old Testament Courses

Discovering David

This 8-week course offers an in-depth exploration of the complex life and legacy of King David, closely following his story in 1-2 Samuel as well as his connection to the Psalms, the ancestry of Jesus, and later Christian art and theology.

The Book of Jonah

Through this course you will take a closer look at one of the most iconic stories in Scripture and what it has to teach us about the depths of God's mercy and compassion.

The Prophetic Imagination

Through this course you will take a closer look at one of the most iconic stories in Scripture and what it has to teach us about the depths of God's mercy and compassion.

Women in the Old Testament

This 6-week course explores how the Bible is read by different people and then situates women in their historical and geographical settings to get a sense of the laws they labored under.

Echoes of Scripture in the New Testament

In this course you will discover how and why the writers of the New Testament tell the story of Jesus and the early church by re-using ideas and images that come from Genesis through Malachi.

Life After Exile: Migration, Identity, and Hope in Ezra-Nehemiah

Explore Ezra and Nehemiah in its setting of a return migration to Jerusalem (Ezra 1:1-4) and what this literature might teach us about restoring hope and faith in God today.

Making Sense of the Pentateuch

This course explores key themes in Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, including the complex and compelling stories of our great ancestors of faith, from Abraham and Sarah to Moses and Miriam.

Making Sense of the Prophets

This course explores key themes in Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, including the complex and compelling stories of our great ancestors of faith, from Abraham and Sarah to Moses and Miriam.

Making Sense of Wisdom Literature

This course introduces the concept of wisdom in the biblical tradition and the debates that play out between the different perspectives on wisdom found in the books of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes.