

Church's Mission Courses

Faith in Conflict

This course presents the historical and theological roots of one of the world's longest running conflicts, the Troubles of Northern Ireland, with attention to how a community of faith helped build peace and pursue reconciliation in that region.

Seeking Shalom

This 6-part study offers an in-depth exploration of the biblical concept of shalom, including its relationship to economics, justice, community flourishing, and the mission of the church.