

Lesson 2

Mark's Resurrection

REFLECTION GUIDE

Welcome

As you watch the lesson, take notes on key themes, ideas, and questions that stand out to you. Pause the video when needed to reflect, jot down insights, or revisit an important section. Stay attentive to how the content connects with both your personal faith journey and issues that matter to your community.

Questions

- How does Mark's idea of an "unsafe" Jesus mesh with Paul's "offensive" resurrection proclamation?
- Why do we often desire a "complete ending" with all the loose ends tied up? What might we have to confront (or let go of) in ourselves to see this unfinished story as the ultimate good news?
- What emotions does Mark's resurrection story inspire in you? Excitement, trepidation, anxiety? Why?
- Where have you seen Jesus (or traces of him) other than the obvious places like church and the Bible?
