Matterhorn

The matterhorn is a mountain of the Alps, straddling the main watershed and border between Switzerland and Italy. It's a large, near-symmetrical pyramidal peak. The mountain's summit is 4478 mtrs but you don't have to climb so high just turn this peak upside down and join me on this wonderful food journey down south!

TAMIL NADU

Tamil Nadu lies in southernmost part of Indian peninsula & is bordered by the union territory of Puducherry & Southern Indian states of Kerala, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh. Chennai being the capital & largest city, it's famous for its deep belief that serving food is a service to humanity. The dishes are prepared in an elaborate and leisurely way served in traditional style on a banana leaf.

down south!

Historically known as Keralam. It is bordered by Karnataka to the north and northeast, Tamil Nadu to the east and south, the Lakshadweep Sea and Arabian Sea to the west. The 'land of spices' has many exquisite foods to showcase but few ingredients are common - coconut milk or paste used in gravies or as oil for cooking. Chilli's, curry leaf, mustard seeds and tamarind also dominate the dishes.
