

Junior Investment Analyst (full time or part time) at Nordic Alpha Partners

About Nordic Alpha Partners

We are a leading Industrial Greentech fund, with offices in Copenhagen and Munich. Since 2017, we have raised €400m from some of the largest global institutions to invest in growth-stage energy transition and decarbonization assets in the Nordics and Germany. Our portfolio plays a pivotal role in the green transition and in rebuilding European resilience.

The position

As a junior investment analyst, you will play a key role in our dynamic and ambitious investment team. The role offers exposure to the full investment cycle, including sourcing investment opportunities, conducting initial screenings, performing due diligence, and supporting exit strategies. You will work closely with senior investment professionals, gaining valuable insights into growth investing and private equity.

Typical investment analyst tasks include:

- Identifying potential investment candidates and provide initial assessment based on company presentations, meetings with management and expert interviews.
- Conducting market and sector research and analyses.
- Performing strategic and financial analyses.
- Ad-hoc tasks for portfolio companies.

Your profile

- Excellent academic credentials and studying in the final year of your bachelor's or the first year of your master's degree.
- Curious and eager to learn about different technologies within a diverse field of green industries.
- Able to work with a reasonable level of complexity and ambiguity, as tasks can vary.
- Excellent analytical skills and focus on quality in your deliveries.
- Enjoy taking ownership and responsibility.
- Strong team player with great interpersonal skills.
- Permission to live and work in Denmark, with proficient English language skills.

Want to join our team?

Please submit your application, including CV, cover letter, and grade transcript to recruitment@nordicalpha.com no later than August 10. Interviews will be conducted on a rolling basis.

Should you have any questions related to the position, do not hesitate to contact Rasmus Lund via rlu@nordicalpha.com or on +4526806818.

We encourage all applicants regardless of gender, age, religious belief, sexual orientation, national and social origin, political standpoint, disability, race or ethnic origin to apply.
