1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

During the 2023-24 school year, our school prioritized laying a strong foundation for the implementation of Prop 28 arts education programs. Our efforts focused on strategic planning, including comprehensive needs assessments to identify areas of greatest student need and potential program impact. We conducted extensive research into best practices and explored various arts education models. Collaborative meetings were held with teachers, administrators, and students. We also began the process of building internal capacity by identifying potential instructors and developing professional development opportunities for existing staff. This year was dedicated to ensuring a robust and sustainable arts education program for future years, maximizing the impact of Prop 28 funding. No funds were spent in the 23-24 school year.
