Member External Review Request Form

Please fully complete the form and indicate the reason(s) why you believe the claim payment or determination is incorrect and should be changed. You may attach a written statement or additional documentation to back up your request. Please include a copy of any bill(s) you may have received from your provider, if applicable. All requests for external review must be submitted within four months from the final adverse benefit determination (or any other applicable timeframe that may be identified in the plan document). Your external review will be decided in the timeframe required by law.
