

Smt. Alisha Mathew Varghese

Alisha Mathew is the Senior Vice President – Business Strategy, Product and Partnerships at Nabkisan Finance Limited, with nearly 15 years of experience in the NBFC and financial services sector. She is a professional Chartered Accountant and possesses a Masters in Commerce from the Mumbai University. She has deep expertise in inorganic book building through structured credit products, treasury and syndication, financial institution partnerships, and credit underwriting.

At Nabkisan, she leads the design of business strategy, product frameworks, and strategic partnerships with ecosystem players, enabling scalable and risk-aligned portfolio growth. Her role spans structuring complex transactions, strengthening underwriting discipline, and building collaborative funding and co-lending relationships.

Known for combining strategic insight with execution rigor, Alisha contributes to building resilient portfolios while advancing Nabkisan's mission of delivering inclusive and sustainable financial solutions across rural and semi-urban India.