

Shri Srinivasan Ramesh is currently serving as Chief General Manager, NABARD. An Agriculture Graduate with a Master's degree in Business Management and a Certified Associate of the Indian Institute of Bankers (CAIIB), he brings over 25 years of diverse experience in agricultural and rural development finance, project financing, credit planning, and development initiatives. He has held various key positions across NABARD's Regional Offices and previously served as Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer of NABKISAN. He has also contributed as a Senior Consultant with NABARD Consultancy Services, leading several consultancy assignments. Shri Srinivasan Ramesh was a member of the Government of India's Working Group on Financing Linkages under the 10,000 FPOs Scheme.