Fishermen: people who earn a living through fishing

Disciples: a follower of Jesus

Tax Collector: a person who collects money on behalf of the Romans at the time of Jesus.

Peace: freedom from conflict

Forgiveness: when someone is stopped being blamed or punished for something they have done

Apostles: the twelve followers of Jesus who went with him during his earthly ministry

Important information

Jesus chose people from many different roles in life to be his Apostles. Jesus often chose people to follow him who were outcasts at the time.

One person he chose was man named Matthew who was a tax collector. The Romans employed tax collectors to collect money from the people and they were hated as they gave the money to the Romans and kept some for themselves. Jesus showed forgiveness to Matthew by asking him to become one of his followers.

Jesus wanted his apostles and disciples to be world changers, so like Matthew they would be able to spread Jesus' message of love, forgiveness, and peace. Jesus chose people like Matthew as this would show everyone as it showed that anyone who wanted to could change.

Jesus also chose other world changers to help him spread his message of forgiveness, these included the fishermen, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew and James and John. As with Matthew these were unlikely people for Jesus to call to be his apostles.

Christians believe that Jesus' message of 'forgive and be forgiven' is still needed today and they will work to show this in all that they do. In Leeds, for example, the Christians at St. George's Crypt have been helping the homeless people for over 90 years and are putting into place Jesus' teaching and following his good news.

Key questions:

Why is forgiveness from God 'good news' for Christians?

What happens to someone who forgives?

What things stop us from having peace in the world?

How can we find peace?
