Managing inappropriate behaviour

If a parent, carer or visitor is behaving inappropriately, a report will be made to the headteacher or the most senior member of staff available in their absence, who will decide on the most appropriate course of action. If the behaviour is directed at the headteacher, a report will be made to the Trust Executive Leadership Team.

Parents, carers and visitors should raise concerns regarding another parent/carer's behaviour or conduct directly with their child's class teacher or the school office and should not approach the parent/carer themselves.

Instances of Parent, carer or visitors displaying inappropriate behaviour will be managed in a variety of ways, depending on the severity of the situation.

When a parent, carer or visitor has behaved inappropriately, they will be contacted by the headteacher or senior member of staff to discuss their behaviour and to attempt to resolve the issue quickly. Where this initial contact is not sufficient to resolve the issue, the headteacher, in collaboration with other staff and relevant agencies, will consider what further action may be required. This action, depending on the situation, could include the following:

- Banning the parent/carer from the school premises
- Contacting the police
- Seeking legal redress through the courts
- Restricting the parent's/carer's channels of communication to the school, e.g. no longer allowing the parent/carer to send emails to a staff member directly.
- Reporting content the parent/carer has posted online to the website's admin.
- Referring the case to children's social care, where the behaviour indicates that the parent/carer poses a risk to children.
- Initiating the process of establishing a restraining order

If the behaviour is directed at the headteacher, a report will be made to the Trust Executive Leadership Team who will consider what further action may be required.

Any child protection and safeguarding concerns will be addressed in accordance with the Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy.

The school & Trust reserve the right to escort anyone off the premises who is displaying aggressive or disruptive behaviour. The police may be contacted to provide advice on managing an incident or to assist in the removal of an individual from the premises, where necessary. The police will be contacted where a parent is being violent or has committed assault, or where the event has caused harm to an individual.

If a parent has been previously banned from the premises or has exceeded their implied access to the premises and is causing a disturbance, the police will be contacted to remove the individual from the premises.

If a parent, carer or visitor persistently displays unacceptable and inappropriate behaviour, this may result in them being banned from the school premises.

Banning from school premises

The Trust has the right to bar a parent, carer or visitor from the premises to keep the school community safe. If a parent, carer or visitor/carer is displaying inappropriate or concerning behaviour, they will be asked to leave the school premises immediately. Behaviour that could result in a parent/carer being asked to leave the premises includes aggressive, abusive or insulting behaviour or language that is a risk to staff or pupils, or behaviour that is making staff or pupils feel threatened.

If a parent, carer or visitor/carer persistently or consistently behaves inappropriately on the school site, or there is a one-off incident of extremely inappropriate behaviour, the school reserves the right to bar this individual from the school site.

The school will either:

- bar them temporarily, until the individual has had the opportunity to formally present their side.
- tell them they intend to ban them and invite them to present their side by a set deadline.

The headteacher or Trust will send a letter to the parent, carer or visitor/carer, informing them of the following information:

- Why they have been temporarily banned or face a potential ban.
- The nature of the ban, i.e. if they are temporarily banned pending their representation or if they must present their side before the decision to ban can be made.
- That they have the right to formally express their views on the decision to ban in writing to the Trust Governance Professional within 10 working days.

The school or Trust will take account of any representations made by the parent, carer or visitor/carer and decide whether to confirm or lift the ban. The parent, carer or visitor/carer will be notified in writing of the decision to uphold or lift the ban.

If the decision is confirmed, the parent, carer or visitor/carer will be notified in writing, explaining:

- How long the ban will be in place.
- When the decision will be reviewed.

Decisions to ban will be reviewed at the end of the agreed timescale, in line with the process outlined above. Following a review, the ban may be lifted or, if there are grounds for continued concern regarding the parent, carer or visitor's/carer's conduct, it may be extended.

Once the review process has been completed, parent, carer or visitors who remain banned may be able to apply to the Civil Courts. If a parent, carer or visitor/carer wishes to exercise this option, they will be advised to seek independent legal advice.

Monitoring and review

This document will be reviewed on an annual basis by the Trust Board and any changes made will be communicated to all parent, carer or visitors and staff at the school.

All parents and carers are provided with a copy of this code of conduct upon their child's attendance at the school and are required to familiarise themselves with the procedures and guidelines outlined. Visitors can view this online or ask the school Reception for a copy.

Appendix 1-Letter –Parent/Carer and visitor Code of Conduct Explanation

Private and Confidential

Dear Parent/Carer or visitor

DATE

At Connect Academy Trust we strive to build strong relationships with parents/carers and visitors and create a safe and secure learning environment for our pupils. To aid with this, there is a Parent Code of Conduct in place, and we ask all parents associated with the school to familiarise themselves and act in accordance with these expectations.

The Parent/carers and visitor Code of Conduct outlines the manner in which all parents/carers and visitors are expected to conduct themselves, and the types of behaviour that are not tolerated by the trust and may result in further action. It also includes information on how poor parent/carers behaviour will be formally handled, including how the barring from school premises process works.

Our expectations of parents/carers and visitors include:

- Setting a good example to all pupils in the way they behave, communicate and dress when on the school premises.
- Working together with staff members for the benefit of their child to resolve any issues or concerns.
- Treating all school personnel, pupils and other parents/carers and visitors with dignity and respect.
- Correcting any of their child's poor behaviour, especially where it could lead to conflict, or aggressive or unsafe behaviour.
- Respecting the school's property and keeping it clean and tidy.
- Adhering to the school's road and parking rules, and the procedures for picking up and dropping off children at school.
- Dressing in an appropriate manner when on the school premises.
- Remaining calm, sensitive and respectful towards others when on the school premises.
- Ensuring they do not smoke or vape while on the school premises, and do not enter the school premises in possession, or under the influence, of drugs or alcohol.
- Keeping pets off the school premises.
- Not taking photographs or videos on the school premises without express permission from the school.

We would also like to make you aware that should you have any concerns about another parent's/carers behaviour which you feel is in breach of our Parent/Carers Code of Conduct, you must speak with the headteacher as soon as possible – we ask that you do not address this with the parent/carers directly, in order to avoid putting yourself at unnecessary risk. Poor parent behaviour on the school premises or towards a pupil or member of staff will be handled by the school directly.

Should you have any queries about the contents of the Parent/Carers Code of Conduct, the Parent/Carers Code of Conduct Agreement, or need help reading or accessing these documents, please contact the Trust Governance Professional at admin@connectacademytrust.co.uk at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Connect Academy Trust
