About President Ivan Royal

Ivan Royal oversees all Arizona OMEX operations. A thoughtful and proven leader, he has dedicated nearly 21 years of service to the United States Army where he most recently served as First Sergeant for a worldwide military police company supporting large-scale U.S. Army Operations. Following a distinguished military career, he held numerous senior facility management roles where he developed staff, implemented new technologies and improved efficiencies before launching OMEX in Arizona in 2017. He brings these exceptional leadership and management skills to OMEX, ensuring efficient, effective and safe delivery of maintenance services from a top-notch staff.
