

Elvaston

We are a leading investment firm specialising in the European enterprise software market, known for our “buy and build” strategy. With over 120 acquisitions and €3 billion in assets, we partner with companies poised to become industry leaders.

Our approach champions growth through close collaboration, developing internal strengths, and building platforms for success. As experts in the software industry, we drive progress and innovation. Through our academy, we unite business leaders to share insights and shape future growth. By supporting and challenging our portfolio companies, we create sustainable value for them and our investors.

We invest in stronger futures.

Our portfolio of enterprise software leaders

With over 120 acquisitions, over 24 platforms, and €3 billion in assets under management, we aim to acquire majority shareholdings in companies that are well positioned to become industry leaders. Our portfolio consists of a wide range of companies, with a focus on B2B software companies, historically in the DACH region, and now with a broader scope. With a pan-European presence, we are taking today's software entrepreneurs and making tomorrow's industry leaders.
