

INTEGRATED PROGRAMS

Connecting the Generations

JRC's Intergenerational Connections Program brings children and adults together to benefit both generations! Intergenerational programming provides mutual multi-generational benefits through planned interactions. When the generations are brought together, they engage each other through verbal or nonverbal means, get to know each other and build meaningful relationships.

Adult Day Center

EMPOWERING SENIORS

Stay Independent, Stay Engaged

The JRC Adult Day Center is the answer for adults who seek to retain their preferred lifestyle and remain in their community as independently as possible—for as long as possible. Adult day services offer those who need assistance the opportunity to engage in purposeful activities, socialization, and exercise. Attending JRC Adult Day Center can make an impactful difference in an aging adult's health and well-being.

Located in the former Meyer's Lake Ballroom across from Tim's Tavern, JRC's spacious facility offers quality, essential Adult Day Services for a low-cost fee or even FREE!
