Notification of Investor Interest in the Subscription of New Shares

BOSQAR d.d. ("Company") hereby informs the public that the subscription of new shares in the secondary public offering, which commenced on 1 June 2026, is proceeding in line with the planned timetable and that, to date, the Company has received strong investor interest in the subscription of its new shares.

According to the data available at the end of the day on 4 June 2026, the order book had exceeded 93% of the targeted issuance of EUR 150 million.

The above information reflects the current status of the order book and is subject to change until the expiry of the subscription period for the new shares.

The subscription of the Company's new shares will continue until the expiry of the subscription period, which, in accordance with the Public Call for the Subscription of New Shares published by the Company on 19 May 2026 (the "Public Call"), has been set to 15 June 2026 at 10:00 a.m. (CET) in respect of the Company's existing shareholders (first subscription round), and to 10 June 2026 at 4:00 p.m. (CET) in respect of all other investors (second subscription round).

In accordance with the Public Call, and following the expiry of the first-round offering period, the Company will timely inform the public about the results of the subscription of the new shares.
