Reliability Forum Disclaimer

1. Webinar Logistics

This NPCC Reliability Forum will be hosted on Microsoft Teams. Participants are muted upon entry, and are encouraged to use the “Q&A” feature to submit questions. The questions will be answered by the presenter at the end of each presentation. The NPCC Reliability Forum will be recorded and presentation materials will be posted in the event section of the NPCC website.

2. Public Advisory

Participants are reminded that this Microsoft Teams webinar is public. Speakers on the call should keep in mind that the listening audience may include members of the press and representatives of various governmental authorities, in addition to the expected participation by industry stakeholders.

3. Content and Reliance

Any information presented at NPCC forums is for informational purposes only. NPCC accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of such presentations, or for your reliance on any information contained within the content available through such forums. Discussions represent a wide range of views and interests of the participating individuals and organizations. Statements made during discussions do not necessarily reflect those of NPCC.

4. Vendor Information

Discussions presented are for stakeholder informational purposes only and do not imply NPCC's endorsement or approval. NPCC does not promote technology, tools, products, services, or vendors that may be used by Entities within the electric industry. Questions or concerns about vendors or the services or products they offer must be directed to the vendor. It is the responsibility of the owner, operator, or the user of the Bulk Power System (BPS) to research the services the vendors offer. Those who utilize the services of vendors assume full responsibility for claims directly or indirectly arising thereunder and NPCC is not responsible or liable for any claim or harm, directly or indirectly, that transpires from the use of any information.

Antitrust Compliance Guidelines

It is NPCC's policy and practice to obey the antitrust laws and to avoid all conduct that unreasonably restrains competition. The antitrust laws make it important that meeting participants avoid discussion of topics that could result in charges of anti-competitive behavior, including: restraint of trade and conspiracies to monopolize, unfair or deceptive business acts or practices, price discrimination, division of markets, allocation of production, imposition of boycotts, exclusive dealing arrangements, and any other activity that unreasonably restrains competition.

It is the responsibility of every NPCC participant and employee who may in any way affect NPCC's compliance with the antitrust laws to carry out this commitment.

Participants in NPCC activities (including those participating in its committees, task forces and subgroups) should refrain from discussing the following throughout any meeting or during any breaks (including NPCC meetings, conference calls and informal discussions):

- Industry-related topics considered sensitive or market intelligence in nature that are outside of their committee's scope or assignment, or the published agenda for the meeting;
- Their company's prices for products or services, or prices charged by their competitors;
- Costs, discounts, terms of sale, profit margins or anything else that might affect prices;
- The resale prices their customers should charge for products they sell them;
- Allocating markets, customers, territories or products with their competitors;
- Limiting production;
- Whether or not to deal with any company; and
- Any competitively sensitive information concerning their company or a competitor.

Any decisions or actions by NPCC as a result of such meetings will only be taken in the interest of promoting and maintaining the reliability and adequacy of the bulk power system.

Any NPCC meeting participant or employee who is uncertain about the legal ramifications of a particular course of conduct or who has doubts or concerns about whether NPCC's antitrust compliance policy is implicated in any situation should call NPCC's General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, Mr. Damase Hebert at (646) 737-2335 or dhebert@npcc.org.
