A LOOK THROUGH THE YEARS!

Originally named the Hi-Way Theatre, this was the site of the first celebrated parish Mass in 1951. The picture is from 1954 after the theatre had been renamed.

STEWARSHIP CORNER

Thank You

Today is Appeal Sunday. Padre Pio said, "Let us try to serve the Lord with all our heart and will. He will always give us more than we deserve." We all tried, and the Archbishop wants to personally thank you for your gift. He is so grateful to us because we helped him carry out his responsibilities to help those in need.

Think about this. Through your gift, you were there for those who want a better life. You were there for those whose life would have ended in the streets rather than a caring facility. You were there for those who are needy, molested, abused, as well as the poor and the homeless. You were there for the unwed mother who gives birth rather than abort. Thank you for being there. Some of you might not have been able to make a gift today or are on vacation or forgot. You can make your pledge as soon as possible by dropping it in the collection basket at Mass, bringing it to the Rectory or making it online on the parish website. By all of us helping, we will make our goal.

Remember, "Christ has no body, but yours. No hands or feet on earth, but yours. Yours are the eyes through which Christ looks with compassion into this world. Yours are the feet and hands which Christ needs to help these unfortunate souls.

I'm sure God takes the giving and generous hands of our parishioners and uses them to bring comfort to the needy. Yes, you are God's hands, feet and eyes on earth.

The parishioners of Epiphany will never let God and the Archbishop, who carries out His mission of love, not to be successful. They will be leaders because they love God and have received many blessings.

Thank you for being there. You are truly One in Faith, One in Hope and One in Charity. Thank you for helping.
