STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Ash Wednesday

It seems like yesterday I was taking down my Christmas tree, and on Wednesday, Feb. 18th it is Ash Wednesday. It is also the beginning of the season of Lent. On that day, we will have our foreheads marked with ashes to remind us that our life on earth is temporal, but if we are faithful to God during our lifetime, we will live for all eternity with God and our loved ones in heaven.

Let's begin the season of Lent with a humorous story. In the 1950s and 1960s, most parishes conducted a mission to help souls get back to God, and to encourage the faithful to continue loving God in their journey to heaven. On the first night of the women's weekly mission, Father Michael, a Franciscan Missionary, made some announcements and told the women that on Friday of this week, he would bless all their religious articles. He then noticed a woman raising her hand. "Can I help you?" he asked. "Yes, Father, Is it alright if I brought my husband on Friday night to be blessed?" The missionary was puzzled, and answered, "But he is not a religious article." "Oh, yes, he is . . . he is my cross. Please bless him." The Missionary got the women back with a humorous story during the men's mission, and the men vigorously clapped.

As the season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, we should prepare our souls and repent of our sins which caused Christ great pain as He died on the cross. We should try to rid ourselves of selfishness, pride, greed, jealousy and especially of serious sins should it exist. If we do, then we will "rise" to a new life with God at Easter.

During Lent, pray for your loved ones who are now with God and above all pray for the souls in Purgatory. They can't help themselves. When these souls reach heaven, they will pray for you. Everyone asks, "What should I give up for Lent?" Nothing. Instead of giving up something for Lent, why not give up "yourself" to worship God and to adore Him in as many ways as your life permits.

Have a blessed and prayerful season of Lent.

Guidelines for Abstaining and Fasting

Abstaining is observed on Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent and on Good Friday by Catholics 14 years and older.

Fasting is observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18-59 years of age. Those bound by this rule make take only one full meal a day. Two smaller meals are permitted as necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.
