STEWARDSHIP CORNER

A Good Confession

Most of us went to confession the first time before we received "Our First Holy Communion." Since then, we have all confessed our sins many times, especially during Lent. We were all taught to believe that once we confessed our sins and made a purpose of amendment, they were forgiven by God for all eternity. At times, our past memory of serious sins causes us to worry and fret that we are not forgiven. God does not want us to anguish over and over about the past. When God forgives, God forgets. Perhaps the following prayer will help.

"Lord, I repent once again for the sins I have committed. I thank you for forgiving me and freeing me from my guilt. I'm so happy that You love me and have granted me mercy and kindness."

There may be someone who is in serious sin and afraid of making a good confession. Remember, God already knows about them, and all that He is asking is that you confess your sins, do penance, and hope never to commit that sin again. God loves you. He is waiting for you. Once you make that confession, you will be filled with love and happiness. What more can God do?

Jesus loves us and wants us to be happy. So don't let the burden of sin weigh you down. He is waiting for you to come. How sad is the alternative, to remain in darkness and apart from the loving arms of Jesus.

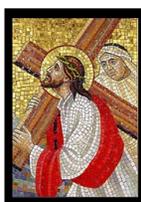

Six-year-old Jenny accompanied her parents to church as they prepared to go to confession. Daddy was ready and went into the confessional room. Jenny said to her mother, "Mommy, why did Daddy go into that door?"

"That is the Confessional Room where Daddy tells God all his troubles and is helped." Jenny thought for a moment and whispered, "I feel sorry for God. Daddy always has a lot of troubles."

Have a prayerful Lent. Make a good confession.
