STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Love One Another

When Jesus walked this earth, He taught His Apostles to "Love One Another". He promised them that if they loved one another and were faithful to God, they would live forever in heaven.

Let me tell you a true story. When I was growing up in the 1940's, our mailman, Mr. Wilson, knew every family by name as he was delivering the mail to their home. When he knew a letter was important, he would ring your bell to alert you. All the kids on the block would stop playing to greet Mr. Wilson, "Good morning, Mr. Wilson". He would smile and toss the ball around with the kids. At Christmas time, he was given gifts, cookies, cakes and a bottle of wine many times. He was loved.

One morning, another mailman was delivering the mail. My mother called out to him, "Good morning, Sir, is Mr. Wilson sick?" "I'm sorry to tell you this, but Mr. Wilson had a heart attack and died during the night." My mother was stunned and began to cry. When the neighbors heard the news, they were saddened and tearful.

It so happened that Mr. Wilson was Jewish. But that did not keep the neighbors from attending his funeral in the Jewish synagogue. After the service, the Rabbi thanked the people for attending and then said . . . "during the service I heard jingling and realized it was his friends who loved him and were saying the Rosary. Your faith is a beautiful tribute to Mr. Wilson – I'm sure he is very happy."

There is no doubt that if we all loved one another, the world would be filled with love, peace and tranquility. I'm sure Mr. Wilson looked down from heaven and thanked his Catholic friends for praying for him in the Jewish synagogue.

What a world we would live in if there were more "Mr. Wilsons". Love One Another.

Happy Independence Day

May the next 250 years be filled with faith, hope, and united in Christ.
