STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Happy Labor Day

On September 7th, we celebrate Labor Day. The reason we celebrate is to honor men and women who make up the work force. Whether you are a white-collar worker, a blue-collar worker, or a non-collar worker, you make the world a better place, and the more pride you take in your work, the greater contribution you will make to mankind.

I recently read about a small company in Agnone, Italy, which has made a great contribution to mankind. Believe it or not, the company has been in business for over 1,000 years. The Marinelli, a family business, has been going strong for centuries making church bells. From the tiniest bells in small village churches to the six-ton bell hanging at the Vatican, to the Peace Bell at the United Nations headquarters in New York. Bells from the Marinelli foundry are heard worldwide. Presently, there are 12 family members running the business. They believe in excellence and quality of work.

Excellence and quality of work take knowledge, patience, repetition, practice, honesty, a sense of responsibility, and above all pride in your work. These are the qualities that every man and woman should have . . . from world leaders to the person who sweeps the streets. If every person working strove to be excellent, then, our country and the whole world would be a better place to live in.

We salute the working man and woman, including all those brave men and women serving in our Armed Forces. Let's never forget the mothers who work from home. Let us offer a prayer for the unemployed who are struggling to support their families.

Be proud of your work. Be a good steward.

Happy Labor Day.

9/11 ANNIVERSARY PRAYER

God of Peace and Mercy,

On this anniversary, we lift up the souls who perished on that day. Welcome them with loving arms into Your kingdom. Comfort their families and friends. Help us to mourn alongside them with a constant compassion that can only be rooted in You. May we look to the first responders that day to inspire us to live bravely and courageously, and to selflessly protect others in need. May we look to those who opened up their homes to the stranded and displaced that day to stir us to be more hospitable. Having seen the face of evil and darkness, may we be steadfast and faithful in pursuing You, our perpetual Light. In Jesus's name we pray. Amen.
