STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Holiness and Remembrance

On Sunday and Monday of this week, we celebrate two of the most beautiful and uplifting days in the life of the Church, The Feast of All Saints (Nov. 1st) and the Feast of All Souls (Nov. 2nd).

All of us know people who live exemplary lives, committed and dedicated to their vocation, whether they are priests, religious nuns, whether they are married or single, who share their lives with God. To be holy is not to do extraordinary deeds, but to do ordinary deeds in an extraordinary way. We should all strive to be holy.

We should never forget the souls in Purgatory. These souls in Purgatory cannot help themselves, but we can help them attain heaven by praying for them, offering Mass for them, as well as our good intentions and good actions. The power of love for one another goes on even after death. By helping the souls in Purgatory, one day others will help you. Sometimes people feel helpless at the death of a loved one, wishing there was more they could do for their beloved. Catholics know the power of prayer and love can help even after death. So always pray for your loved ones and friends and always add a special prayer for the souls who have no one to pray for them and are completely forgotten.

Why? Because we all want to end life in heaven with God. In heaven, there will be no sorrow, no pain, no hardship, no struggle of any kind. We will understand everything . . . from the secrets of the universe, to the mysteries of our faith. We will be secure in heaven knowing that there is no possibility of ever losing it.

As stewards of the Lord, let us pray for one another and especially for our beloved dead.

Enjoy the Feasts of All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Proc: Ye watchers and ye holy ones (352)

Psalm: 24 – Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.
