Glazed donut nails were all the rage, followed by strawberry-glazed donuts. It was only a matter of time before Ganzorigt came up with this look.We love how subtle and abstract gilded tips create an interesting contrast with chrome nails. For a French mani, try gold chrome tips like Chaun Legend's work on Maeve Reilly. Multicolor ombre chrome is stunning, but you may need professional help to achieve such intricate star-studded rainbow nail art.These cloud-like aura chrome nails give off majestic vibes for all the crystal girlies out there. Pale cotton candy shades with a chrome top coat create iridescent fairy-inspired nails. For a more opaque white chrome look, start with a solid white base coat and add a chrome effect on top.Noire nails look elegant (but still edgy) with a chrome finish, making it perfect for any occasion from weddings to work. For a subtle chrome-y finish, consider a sheer polish topped off with holographic chrome powder.This not-quite-cherry cranberry hue is an excellent choice for fall chrome manicure needs and looks stunning in every shade of red. You don't have to cover your entire nail to partake in the chrome nails trend; mini chrome French tips can make a big impact.These simple and short chrome nails are far from boring, with the unexpected topcoat making them shinier and almost iridescent. Bright yellow chrome mani adds a little sunshine to your life, while glazed donut nails created using Nails-Luxe Iridescent Chrome Palette are stunning.When considering bold nail trends like chrome nails, consider switching up your nail shape as well. Stiletto-shaped nails can make chrome mani look even more stunning. Subtle silvery swirls give this manicure an almost watercolor-like effect, while blue nails with a chrome topcoat are always cool and chic.A Chrome Nail Trend That's Out of this WorldThe season is changing, and so are our nail game. This stunning chrome nail trend combines three popular styles: chrome nails, glazed doughnut nails, and lip gloss nails. It's a perfect look for spring and summer and pairs well with sundresses.The outer-space-meets-volcanic-eruption vibes of this chrome mani have taken over Instagram, and it's easy to see why. The raised chrome swirls and detailing add an extra level of coolness to the clear base.It's time to bid farewell to pastel manicures and hello to deep-purple chrome colours. This trend is all about texture and adds a unique twist to the classic French mani.For those who can't give up on the classic, try swapping the traditional white line for a silver quarter-moon streak. Another modern take on the French mani features different coloured chrome polishes on each nail tip.Summer vibes are in full swing with this bubblegum pink polish in a chrome finish paired with red tips and almond-shaped nails. Chrome accents can also be used to add a minimalistic touch, while a juxtaposition of silver and gold finishes creates a sci-fi look.Nail artist Betina Goldstein has created some unique designs that will blow your mind. A chrome green manicure starts off with a black base coat and is finished with a reflective green chrome powder. Floral nail stickers or striping brushes can be used to achieve a semi-French chrome manicure.Silver-tinted chrome nails are often praised, but Dua Lipa's mani proves that French tip chrome nails can be just as cool. The aura nail trend is also gaining attention, and combining metallic green polish with milky white polish and a makeup sponge creates an airbrushed look.Nothing says summer like a creamsicle-inspired mani. I love how orange polish blends with soft chrome accents to create a cool gradient effect. To spice up a black manicure, add a single chrome accent nail with a crackled, foil effect - equal parts edgy and glam.Pearly pink chrome nails are perfect for wedding season, looking great on bridesmaids or plus-ones. As a film lover, I'm referencing this mystic mani to the age of Transformers, hoping Megan Fox will recreate it for her next red carpet appearance.Groovy glazed swirls on pink chrome nails evoke Barbiecore heaven, requiring zero polish thanks to ManiMe's UV-free stick-on gel set inspired by Margot Robbie. This trippy French manicure is mesmerizing, whether it's the flash of a camera or the sun shining on holographic tips - I just can't stop staring.Glazed donut nails are a fun way to turn fingertips into little jewels. Chrome powder adds interest to simple colors, making them suitable for virtually every nail polish color.Chrome nails have taken over, with a recent surge in popularity for aura nails - an ethereal trend featuring a spherical ombr effect. This style involves applying a color gradient that darkens from the middle of the nail outwards to create a lighter shade towards the edges.To achieve a silver-toned glow, pair a light gray or milky nail polish with sterling silver chrome powder. Chrome nails look just as good on long nails as they do short ones and can be finished with no wipe top coat to prevent chipping.Other trending manicures include adding a glazed look to a French manicure for an extra touch of elegance, using chrome powder over milky brown polish to create a chocolate glazed donut effect, and blending 3D gel with chrome powder for an iridescent and ombr effect.Looking for inspiration on how to create a stunning manicure? Consider trying out a few different shades and finishes to add visual appeal to your look. Earth tones and nudes are great options for a minimalist style, while a purply blue shade with a reflective top coat can give you an ethereal and glam look. You can also experiment with incorporating 3D gel into your design for added texture and depth. For something bold and daring, try pairing a black and silver chrome variation. And don't forget to mix things up by adding different colors to your polish, such as golden chrome powder over coral-y pink or white chrome powder with golden tips.Given text here The British actor's identity as the banker on Channel 4's Deal or No Deal has been revealed.A person who had a breast enhancement surgery is seeking revenge against the company that made it.A man was found dead in his home after a violent argument with his wife.A woman took to social media to ask for advice regarding the name of her pet.The UK entry in the Eurovision Song Contest, What The Hell Just Happened?, scored a top 12 points from the Italian jury.Glass velvet nails are expected to be one of the most popular nail trends in 2025.Nail artists shared their predictions for the top nail trends of next year:Sheer, gradient colors are built up to mimic the texture of mohair, giving nails a soft-focus, fabric-like appearance. This method enables seamless blending and unique, organic patterns that elevate the traditional sweater nail look. While typically done in bright colors, Sabellico notes that mohair sweater nails can also be crafted in neutrals. The beauty of this trend lies in its versatility - whether recreating bold, vibrant colorways or sticking to muted, cozy hues, the result is a chic, tactile design that feels both seasonal and high-fashion.Minimalist nails will always be a top salon request, but in 2025, Sapiens expects reimagined classic designs. The clean girl aesthetic is all about minimal and simple manicures, perfect for any season. To elevate the look, try adding delicate pearls or a touch of iridescent jelly polish to your white tips.According to Mazz Hanna, the most popular nail colors heading into 2025 include warm, creamy brown mocha mousse, rich, dark colors like burgundy, plum, espresso, and navy, and cozy, soft, and subtle neutrals. Metallics are also a great option in today's modern world.On the opposite end of the spectrum, 3D nails exist to take manicures over the top. This style allows for endless creativity, as textures, shapes, and designs come to life with materials like nail clay or putty. With that in mind, modern 3D nails are nothing short of a masterpiece and require the utmost skill to create.Don't think 3D nails are for you? Think again! What makes 3D nails so appealing is their versatility - clients can opt for subtle raised patterns for everyday wear or bold, avant-garde designs for special occasions. It's a trend that celebrates individuality and craftsmanship, making it a standout choice for those looking to elevate their nail game in 2025.Bow accents are the perfect way to achieve a cutesy, demure nail idea, according to Sapiens. "Bow supremacy is making its way into 2025, and I couldn't be happier," she exclaims.
