Special Education 101: Training of the Parent Member

Become a certified Parent Member! The Parent Member role is to support a parent of a child with a disability at an IEP meeting. In this training approved by the NYS Education Department, you will learn about procedures, regulations, and strategies to promote a parent's understanding and participation.

This training is the first required step to become a certified parent member of the IEP team.

All NYC families are welcome to attend, however, if an attendee chooses to serve as a Parent Member after this training:

- Parent must have a child with an IEP (or have had an IEP within the last 5 years).
- Not be employed by the NYC DOE.
- Must be fingerprinted.
- This is not a full time job.
- Parents take on this role to help and support parents like themselves.

NYC families & professionals are welcome.
