

Spectre AI

See The Merchant Portfolio Risks You've Been Missing With AI-Powered Compliance

Spectre AI allows you to view the risk of your portfolio using fraud indicators such as chargebacks, payment volume, VIRP, remote access vulnerabilities and more. This helps you reduce portfolio risk and increase your portfolio's value by running targeted campaigns to your highest-risk merchants.

View, predict, track and reduce risk efficiently with Spectre AI.

Only Target Your High-Risk Merchants

SecurityMetrics Spectre AI provides a window to view risks associated with your merchant portfolio. Spectre AI is automatically run every month to predict and forecast which merchants are most likely to cause a fraud event.

Secure Your Merchant Portfolio Without Merchant Attrition

Using next generation compliance technology, Spectre AI helps acquiring banks and payment service providers:

- View entire merchant risk in a single chart
- Predict merchant compromise
- Track multiple risk indicators using your custom ranking system
- Reduce merchant risk proactively

Predict Merchant Compromise

Don't wait for a merchant to get compromised, prevent it. Using Spectre AI you can clearly see which merchants are taking security seriously or are leaving themselves open to an attack. Spectre AI provides the data you need to know which merchants need assistance first to prevent new attacks or resolve existing, undetected compromises.

Take Advantage of Targeted Compliance Outreach

Spectre AI helps you segment your portfolio, allowing you to adjust your messaging based on merchant risk levels. By prioritizing and catering messages to your riskiest merchants, you can easily reach portfolio compliance goals.

Input And Track Other Risk Trends

View the risk of your portfolio by inputting additional potential fraud vectors such as chargebacks, payment volume, remote access vulnerabilities, VIRP, etc.

Increase The Value of Your Merchant Portfolio

The more secure your portfolio is, the greater its value. Spectre AI is a discovery tool that complements compliance programs and activities. It provides you with critical insights to help you to prioritize your risk management efforts to accelerate fraud reduction.
