

THE PRESERVE AT DUNDEE

VIRGINIA'S PREMIER UPLAND HUNTING EXPERIENCE

THIS IS HUNTING IN VIRGINIA AT IT'S FINEST.

Just north of Richmond, our hunting preserve has been cultivated and strategically prepared for upland hunting. There are several distinct and different hunting environments including traditional pine forests, open fields, and sloping hills.

We provide our exceptional and experienced guides, professionally trained English Setters and Pointers, chef prepared gourmet food and local libations set amongst a beautiful and historic setting.

Built between 1810 and 1820, historical Dundee was the home of General J.E.B. Stuart's cousins. During the Civil War, General Stuart and his wife lived in the large manor. The property was a camping ground for both armies and Dundee shows marks by bullets from both sides.

In the 1990's the farm underwent a three-year transformation, restored to its original splendor by the Barrett family. I look forward to sharing our beautiful grounds with you.

ENGLISH STYLE PHEASANT RELEASE SHOOTS

ENGLISH STYLE PHEASANT RELEASE SHOOTS

Arrive at 9:30am for a check in, coffee and snacks, and a history of Dundee. Following the group safety briefing, we will ride out to the pine savanna on our old Land Rover and wagon.

Our ring shoot consists of 20 pegs around a large pine savanna and hillside that has been managed specifically for upland hunting. The fun begins around 10:15am as we release 500 pheasants as you move your way around the course. If you have never experienced the excitement of a ring shoot, you are in for an unforgettable hunting experience!

After the shoot we will toast our hunters, birds and handlers in the field. A hot drink will be served from our mobile bar as we bring the harvest around to admire. During the hunt we will release two ribbon birds as an opportunity to drum up some competition amongst our hunters. The prizes will be given to the two sharp shooters who will hold their awards until the next hunt! Post toast, we will head up to the manor for game inspired hors d'oeuvres, a sit down family style lunch, and our open bar of local libations.

PRICING FOR ENGLISH STYLE PHEASANT RING SHOOTS
