

BRASATRADE

One partner. Every commodity. Total coverage.

WHAT WE DO

We are a São Paulo-based American commodities brokerage firm, dedicated to bridging Brazilian commodities with global demand. Our purpose is to deliver high-quality Brazilian resources—from agricultural products to natural resources—to international markets, including corporations, government entities, and other institutional clients. By leveraging our deep local expertise and robust network within Brazil's commodity sectors, we provide secure, reliable, and efficient access to one of the world's most resource-rich countries.

Our mission goes beyond simply facilitating transactions. We aim to build lasting partnerships based on transparency, sustainability, and mutual growth. With a commitment to quality and compliance, we ensure that our clients benefit from a seamless trading experience, allowing them to tap into the richness of Brazilian commodities with confidence. Whether it's agricultural products, minerals, or energy resources, we work tirelessly to meet the unique needs of each client, delivering value through each stage of the supply chain. Our presence in São Paulo allows us to stay closely connected to Brazil's dynamic market, positioning us as a trusted partner for international stakeholders seeking reliable, long-term access to Brazilian goods.

With a network of fast and reliable sellers, we can deliver on quality, quantity and price.

OUR DIFFERENCE

First-hand Supplier Vetting

Every supplier in our network is vetted directly by our team ensuring authenticity, reliability, and proven capacity before any transaction takes place.

Trusted by Global Buyers

Institutional buyers across 7+ countries rely on BrasaTrade for consistent, secure, and compliant supply. Our global reach ensures stable demand channels.

American Compliance Standards

All of our operations follow rigorous American compliance and documentation standards, ensuring every transaction meets the highest standards of transparency, accountability, and security.

Brazil-USA Strategic Presence

With headquarters in São Paulo and U.S. operations, we unite direct access to Brazil's commodity markets with international financial expertise—bridging two worlds to deliver secure, efficient, and reliable transactions for our clients.

OUR TEAM

Bryan Buch
Managing Partner

Raised between New York and São Paulo, Bryan holds a B.Sc. in Finance and Economics from NYU Stern and a postgraduate degree in AI/ML from UT Austin's McCombs. He worked in banking and corporate finance at Citibank and Itaú in both New York and Brazil before returning to Brazil, where he identified a technological gap in agribusiness and began selling AI/ML solutions to the sector. Today, leveraging his expertise and network, Bryan facilitates international commodity transactions—focused on sugar, chicken, soybeans, corn, and fuel—sourcing from vetted Brazilian suppliers.

Claudia Nasser
Managing Partner

A seasoned financial professional with over 30 years of experience in the U.S. and Brazil, Claudia has a strong track record in portfolio management, trading, and international commodities. She held senior roles at J.P. Morgan, Citibank, and Merrill Lynch, managing $250 million in client assets and trading over $1 billion in interest-rate derivatives for UHNW clients. After identifying a technology gap in Brazil's agribusiness sector, she built strategic partnerships and began representing high-impact startups. Today, she facilitates international transactions in sugar, chicken, soybeans, corn, and fuels, sourcing from vetted Brazilian sellers.
