

CENTRAL HOUSE

Toorak Event Space

About Us

Central House is an executive workspace for professionals to focus on innovation, collaboration and wellbeing.

With locations in South Melbourne and Toorak, Central House is a shared office space with an emphasis on services and amenities that cater to the needs of professionals.

Host an Event

Host your next event at our unique and beautifully designed space.

Central House is an ideal location to host your event, with our space large enough to host workshops or launch events, with as many as 100 attendees and other spaces that are perfect for more intimate events like board meetings.

Whatever your needs are, our staff are experienced and well-versed in facilitating successful events. We are experienced in hosting a diverse mix of events at Central House. Our regular in-house events range from wellness classes to educational seminars, cocktail classes and networking sessions.
