

5TH DIAGNEXIA HISTOPATHOLOGY SYMPOSIUM 2026

FAQ

Date

19th - 21st August

Check-in

Wednesday 2:00 PM

Location

The Queen's College,
High Street, Oxford,
OX1 4AW,
United Kingdom

Contact

Katie Higgins
+447401290944

WHAT TO EXPECT

We are thrilled to welcome you to the highly anticipated Fifth Diagnexia Histopathology Symposium. Get ready for an exciting and enriching experience that promises to be both educational and entertaining!

On Thursday, the program will kick off at 9:00 AM with a series of engaging lectures. Throughout the day, you can look forward to refreshments and a delicious lunch, keeping you energised and focused during the symposium. The evening will end with a cocktail reception at 6:30pm.

Friday will be another day of full lectures, starting at 9am. The evening will culminate with a Gala College dinner at 7:00 PM, promising a delightful culinary experience in the historic setting of The Queen's College.

The Diagnexia Histopathology Symposium is your gateway to cutting-edge insights and opportunities to collaborate with experts in the field. We're confident you'll leave the symposium feeling inspired and informed.

We can't wait to see you there!

What is the exact location?

The Queen's College, High Street, Oxford, OX1 4AW,
United Kingdom

Check-in

Wednesday 2:00pm

Check-out

10:00am

After check-out, please note that bags can be securely stored in the cloakroom at the lecture theatre.

What are the parking arrangements?

Many Oxford streets are closed to traffic and parking is severely limited. Visitors are encouraged to use the five Park and Ride bus services.

Please refer to Oxfordshire County Council's up-to-date traffic information for details of all local road works and any disruptions likely to delay your journey.

Parking Options

Park and Ride

Oxford is home to the country's first Park and Ride scheme.

- Pear Tree (# 300)
- Redbridge (# 300)
- Seacourt (# 400) ask for 'Queen's Lane' and you will arrive outside the front door to the College
- Thornhill (# 400) ask for 'Queen's Lane', once you disembark you will need to cross the road to reach the front door to the College
- Water Eaton (Oxford Parkway) (# 500)

#400 is most convenient since it stops at 'Queen's Lane' which is outside the Main College Entrance.

#400 Thornhill is convenient if you are travelling on the A40, and #400 Seacourt is convenient if you are travelling on the A34 or A420.

Parking in Oxford city centre

Parking in Oxford city centre is limited and can be expensive. For information on car parks, on-street parking and costs of parking, see Oxfordshire County Council's website.

For information on parking in Oxford for people with disabilities, please see Oxford City Council's Blue Badge scheme.

Public Transport available?

From London Airports

From London Heathrow and Gatwick airports, take The Airline coach service, which runs 24 hours a day. You can also get to Oxford by train from Heathrow via London, and from Gatwick via Reading.

From London Stansted airport, take the Stansted Express train service to London Liverpool Street and then take the tube to either Paddington or Marylebone for direct trains to Oxford. Alternatively there is a National Express 737 coach service.

Train

Direct services run from London Paddington (serving Oxford station) and London Marylebone (serving Oxford and Oxford Parkway stations).

Bus

The Oxford Tube offers a direct service between Oxford and London, running a frequent timetable on a virtually 24-hour basis, Monday to Sunday.

What are the accommodation arrangements?

Each ticket gives you access to your own private room with an ensuite. Rooms are for single occupancy.

What food will be served at the event?

Our Gala Dinner is scheduled for Thursday, after the commencement of the Symposium. Participants can look forward to breakfast on both Thursday & Friday mornings, and a complimentary lunch will be served on Thursday & Friday. Additionally, refreshments such as tea, coffee, and biscuits will be available during the breaks.

Can my spouses and children attend too?

Each ticket grants access for one individual. If you plan to bring additional guests, please notify us in advance, as attendance is subject to room availability. Please note that children are not permitted to stay on campus.

