Humilis North American Tactical Equity Fund Series A

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much an fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

LongPoint Asset Management Inc. has rated the volatility of this fund as Medium.

Because this is a new fund, the risk rating is only an estimate by LongPoint Asset Management Inc. Generally, the rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "Investment Risk Classification Methodology" and "Risk Factors" sections of the fund's prospectus.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

This section shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell units of Series A of the fund. The fees and expenses – including trailing commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

You pay no sales or redemption charges to LongPoint Asset Management Inc. if you buy or redeem Series A units of the fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the returns of this series of the fund. The Series A expenses are made up of the management fee, operating expenses and trading costs. The Series A annual management fee is 1.50% of the Series' value.

As the Series is new, its operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and/or advice that your representative and/or their firm provide to you. LongPoint Asset Management Inc. pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

No load trailing commission - 1.00% of the value of your investment each year. This equals $10.00 each year for every $1,000 invested

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the fund.

Short-term trading fee

0% to 2% of the amount that you redeem or switch if you buy or switch and then redeem or switch units of the fund within 30 days of purchasing or switching them. This penalty will be paid directly to the fund.

Switch fee

You and your representative can negotiate this fee. Currently the fee is up to 2% of the amount you switch.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the prospectus, Fund Facts or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
