Port Moody Ecological Society's 34th Annual Fingerling Festival

Mark your calendars for our annual FREE, FUN, FAMILY EVENT!

Saturday, May 2nd, 2026, 11am to 3pm at 300 loco Road.

Come to our environmental festival to help release thousands of young chum salmon into Noons Creek, sending them off on their journey to the inlet and beyond before they return in 4 years!

All ages are welcome to participate.

Fish release will take place at the hatchery, which is a short walk over the wooden footbridge behind the Port Moody Rec. Centre Ice Rink (300 loco Road). Take a look inside our hatchery where we have been incubating the chum since the fall and see the fish-rearing coho pond outside.

Inside the ice rink, our exhibitor fair will showcase over 50 environmental organizations, providing education on stewardship and our local ecology. Live performances and music will also be held there throughout the day. Hot dogs, chips, and drinks will be available for purchase at our fundraising food tent outside the rink. We look forward to seeing you at the Fingerling Festival!

For more information, visit noonscreek.org, or visit the hatchery any day from 9am to 11am.

La Haine*Friday May 8th, 7:30 PM

When a young Arab is arrested and beaten unconscious by police in Paris, a riot erupts in the notoriously violent Parisian suburbs. Vinz, a Jew, Saïd, an Arab, and Hubert, a black boxer, have grown up here where high levels of diversity coupled with the racist and oppressive police force have raised tensions to a critical breaking point. They wander aimlessly about their home turf in the aftermath of the violence as they try to come to grips with their outrage over the brutal incident. After one of them finds a police officer's discarded weapon, their night seems poised to take a bleak turn. La Haine (Hatred) was nominated for the Palm D'Or at Cannes, and its director Mathieu Kassovitz won the Best Director award there. Kassovitz's triumph is in finding humanity in every single one of his characters. Hard-hitting and breathtakingly effective, La Haine takes an uncompromising look at long-festering social and economic divisions affecting 1990s Paris.

Drama*Runtime 1 hour 38 min, France, 1995, 14ATrailer for La HaineThe Band's Visit - Friday June 12th, 7:30 PM*FREE Film following our famously brief AGM

A band comprised of members of the Egyptian police force head to Israel to play at the inaugural ceremony of an Arab arts center, only to find themselves lost in the wrong town. With no transportation out of the town or any hotels to stay at, the band settles at a restaurant owned by Dina who offers them lodging. What follows is a special night of quiet happenings and confessions as the band makes its own impact on the town and the town on them. Something marvelous happens as the filmmaker, in his first feature, expertly metes out small scenes of communication between people taught, for generations, to be wary of one another. This Band swings with visual wit, verbal charm and a completely droll sense of humor. One can only hope that this film shows the potential for what the future can hold.
