Yes Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus,

with special thanks to PoMoArts for their ongoing support of our local theatre group!

Inspired by a simple, poignant letter written over 100 years ago by 8-year-old Virginia O'Hanlon to the editor of the New York Sun—and by the timeless editorial response printed on the front page of the Sun. Virginia wondered and wrote: "Dear Editor, I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says if you see it in the Sun, it's so. Please tell me the truth. Is there a Santa Claus?" Ed Mitchell, the Sun's editor, gives the assignment of answering Virginia's letter to Frank Church who, until his wife and baby died last Christmas Eve, was the Sun's best and most dependable reporter. Yes Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus is a play for young and old, magically reaffirming life's highest beauty and joy—"the eternal light with which childhood fills the world."

One little white lie. One hilarious winter mess.
April is the new kid at school, and fitting in turns out to be surprisingly easy once everyone thinks she knows a famous pop star.
But what starts as a small misunderstanding becomes a major mess as rumours spread, friendships are tested, and one little white lie snowballs out of control!
Packed with catchy songs, colourful characters, and the hilarious chaos of a Nickelodeon sitcom, The Snowball is a fun-filled musical comedy for all ages! But beneath all the laughs is a heartwarming reminder that being yourself is always better than pretending to be someone you're not.

Theatre Around the Corner presents Amateurs (Amatéři), a razor-sharp, bittersweet comedy by acclaimed Czech playwright and filmmaker Petr Zelenka (Tales of Common Insanity / Příběhy obyčejného šílenství, Wrong Side Up, Dobrém ráno, Brno!). Set over the course of a single, eventful fall evening gathering on a patio, the play explores family ties, complicated relationships, and the fragile illusions of ordinary life with Zelenka's trademark dark humor and wit. Because, as the play reminds us, family is the ultimate trap—and loving them is an amateur sport.

You are cordially invited to step into a lively showcase of color, style, and community this November. Inspired by the classic sentiment, "Life is a picture. Paint it well", this year's exhibition celebrates the joy of bringing people together through creativity.

Art is not merely something to be observed; it is a catalyst that challenges how we see our surroundings and each other. This fresh showcase gathers a dynamic group of artists living and creating right here in our communities. Through a bold variety of mediums, with traditional, contemporary and deeply reflective styles, these works pull back the curtain on the creative process itself – inviting you not just to view the final piece, but to share in the spark that made it.

Join us for a time of imaginative exploration, lively dialogue, and shared inspiration. Whether you come to find new artwork for your home or just a quiet moment of reflection, your presence completes the creative circle.

Never Look Away (at Inlet Theatre)

Port Moody Film Society

Never Look Away, directed by Oscar-winner Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck. is a sprawling allegory of the artistic impulse, arrayed on the canvas of the Second World War and the rise and fall of the Nazis. Inspired by the eventful life of German artist Gerhard Richter, Never Look Away takes key moments from the painter's life, from the pre-WWII Nazi days to early acclaim in the 1960s. Few movies even dare to explore the value of art — to society, to the individual, to the creator and to those standing before it in a gallery — and there are characters throughout Never Look Away who try to express what it should mean. None of them are right and none of them are wrong. (Owing to the length of the film, we will have an intermission about half way through, so please don't panic and let the length deter you from coming. It will be worth it!)

The Mole Agent (in Spanish with English sub-titles) at Inlet Theatre

Warm and funny, The Mole Agent offers audiences a poignant reminder that it's never too late to forge new connections and embark on new adventures. Chilean director Maite Alberdi set out to make a film noir documentary about a spy in a nursing home. She did not expect it to transform into an aching meditation on isolation and loneliness. The Mole Agent was recently adapted into a TV series starring Ted Danson called "Man on the Inside". It's very good, but do yourself a favour and see the original first!
