Cultural Land Acknowledgement

Oki. Tansi. Bienvenue. Welcome.

We acknowledge that we are gathered on the lands of the Blackfoot people of the Canadian Plains and pays respect to the Blackfoot people past, present and future while recognizing and respecting their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship to the land. We offer respect to the Metis and all who have lived on this land and made Lethbridge their home.

Oki and welcome to Sikoohkotok (Lethbridge)!
Oki means hello in Blackfoot, and it is the official greeting of Sikoohkotok.

Introduction

Lethbridge is a growing hub for business events.

The city offers the perfect balance of modern amenities, accessible venues, and warm hospitality. Whether you're planning a national conference, regional trade show, corporate retreat, or board meeting, Lethbridge delivers a seamless experience that makes hosting easy and memorable.

Tourism Lethbridge is here to support you every step of the way with your event planning. We provide guidance on venues, accommodations, catering, and transportation, along with insight into local experiences that can enhance your delegates' stay. Our team helps you connect the dots between logistics and impact to ensure your event runs smoothly from start to finish. Our standout facilities offer scalable spaces and modern technology to support events of all sizes. In addition, unique venues throughout the city allow for memorable off-site sessions, receptions, and networking.

Lethbridge also offers exceptional value. With competitive pricing on accommodations, venue rentals, and catering services, planners will find budgets can stretch further here, allowing for enhanced programming or elevated delegate experiences.

What sets Lethbridge apart is our convenience and connectedness. Our compact city layout means everything is just minutes away, reducing transportation costs and maximizing your delegates' time. With more than 333 days of sunshine a year, beautiful coulee trails, vibrant local food, and proximity to world-class attractions, Lethbridge offers meaningful experiences well beyond the boardroom.

As the official Destination Management Organization for the city, Tourism Lethbridge works collaboratively with our partners to ensure your event exceeds expectations. When you choose Lethbridge, you're not just booking a venue, you're connecting with a community invested in your success.

Lethbridge is ready to welcome your next business event.

Event Experience

GFOA ALBERTA CONFERENCE 2025

- Hosted in Lethbridge – Spring 2025
- Venues: Lethbridge Trade and Convention Centre, Sandman Signature Lethbridge Lodge, Galt Museum & Archives
- Attendees: 300+ municipal finance professionals from across Alberta

In Spring 2025, Lethbridge welcomed the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) Alberta Conference, a multi-day professional development and networking event that brought together over 300 delegates, exhibitors, and speakers.

The Lethbridge Trade and Convention Centre served as the central venue, offering modern, flexible space for keynote sessions, breakout rooms, and a bustling exhibitor floor. Off-site receptions at venues like the Galt Museum added unique local flair, and Southland Transport provided reliable group transportation.

Attendees stayed at the Sandman Signature Lethbridge Lodge, where the service, comfort, and convenience received top marks from both organizers and delegates.

Tourism Lethbridge played a key role in supporting event logistics, providing venue introductions, visitor information, and coordination support in partnership with city stakeholders.

Lethbridge is a hidden gem. You don't fully appreciate what the city has to offer until you're here experiencing it. The hospitality, professionalism, and genuine care from every partner made a lasting impression. We would absolutely love to host here again.”

Sheila Moore, Marketing & Events Manager, GFOA Alberta
