Provide relevant details:

[Poor Financial Performance] Over the past three years, the company faced steadily increasing financial pressure due to a combination of external economic conditions and operational constraints. Rising interest rates beginning in April 2022 significantly increased debt servicing costs, particularly on financing for the south clinic expansion. Inflation further increased supply and wage costs while reducing client affordability, which drove down demand.

Despite multiple rounds of costly bridge financing and personal contributions from the directors, the company was unable to stabilize cash flow. New revenue streams, such as Preventative Health, were developed to improve margins, but required substantial time and focus, which diverted resources from the clinic's core operations. Recruitment of practitioners remained slow, keeping clinic capacity under target.

By mid-2025, operating deficits became unsustainable, and the company could no longer meet its obligations for payroll, lease payments, and other critical liabilities. With no viable path to recovery, the decision was made to cease clinic operations and proceed with a formal wind-down through bankruptcy.

Guidance for Completing Form 31, Proof of Claim

Form 31, Proof of Claim

Form 31 is used to file a proof of claim under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the Act).

If you need more information in completing this Form, contact the Licensed Insolvency Trustee (LIT) responsible for the administration of the estate.

The form should be completed by:

- Creditors or their authorized representatives in response to a proposal or bankruptcy.

Creditor Contact Information

The creditor's preferred contact details for correspondence about the claim.

- This can be a mailing address, fax number or email address.
- More than one type of contact can be provided. The LIT will then have the discretion to send correspondence by one of these options.

The creditor's mailing address must be given to allow the LIT to distribute any estate funds.

Name a contact person to receive correspondence about the claim.

- This can be the creditor or the name or position of a creditor representative.
- A telephone number for the contact person can be given for communication with the LIT.

Additional Details

Enter the following:

- Select if the claim relates to a bankruptcy, a proposal or a receivership.
- The full legal name of the debtor, or the full legal or trade name of the debtor corporation.

The creditor or creditor representative confirms that all information related to the creditor's claim is true and completed to the best of their knowledge.

Paragraphs 1 and 2:

 - If there is no specified rate, use the exchange rate on the filing date provided above.
- Attach supporting documents to provide all relevant details to prove the claim. This allows the LIT to examine the claim and decide whether to allow it.

Paragraph 4

Confirmation of debt status:

- Select whether all, part or none of the debt is statute-barred.
 - A debt is statute-barred when legislation extinguishes the debt or bars a creditor from taking legal action to recover on it due to the passage of time, known as the limitation period.
 - The specific conditions and the time for a debt to become statute-barred vary depending on the circumstances and relevant legislation. For most unsecured liabilities, the general limitation period is between two and six years.
 - A statute-barred debt is not a provable claim under the Act. If you have a claim, it is advisable to seek legal advice to confirm the relevant legislation and limitation period that apply to your claim.

H. Claims by a customer of a bankrupt securities firm:

- A securities firm refers to a business that buys and sells securities, such as shares, mutual funds shares, notes, bonds, debentures, commodity futures, or derivatives, on behalf of its customers.
- The amount claimed must be for the net equity of the customer:
 - This is the value of the securities in the customer's account, had it been liquidated at the close of business on the date of bankruptcy, less any amount owed by the customer to the securities firm on the same date.
