

We can help you turn walk-in customers into sit-down regulars

As a restaurateur, there's a lot to manage. We take some of the worries off your plate, so you can focus on what's really important—the repeat business and referrals that are your bread and butter.

Over 50% of people would tell others to avoid a restaurant due to a dirty washroom or unhygienic kitchen.¹

72% of patrons say that tabletop marketing about loyalty programs increases repeat visits.²

Cost

Tork dispensing solutions help keep consumption, waste, and staff labor in check so you don't have to sacrifice quality or raise menu prices.

Hygiene

Touch-free systems reduce the spread of germs, keeping patrons happy, healthy, and returning to eat again

Image

It's the little things like a clean, clutter-free restroom and dining area that stimulate repeat business.

Sustainability

Switching to Tork 100% recycled and third party certified products improves patrons' perceptions at no extra cost to restaurants.

Recommended Tork products

Front of the house

The perceived cleanliness of the dining area could be the key to building customer loyalty and word-of-mouth buzz, which means strong business growth. Tork systems help you maintain a sanitary environment for your patrons while decreasing labor and improving efficiency for your waitstaff.
