

Good morning Jose

This email serves as notification that PCA is raising box prices effective shipments starting April 1st 2025, by an amount of 14% on dry boxes.

Original increase date was effective March 1st ; however, we were able to hold it for you until April.

We are striving to keep you as competitive as possible, and we are committed to supplying you with the very best product and service in the corrugated industry. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions.

Thank you,
