April 10, 2026

Dear Valued Customer,

Effective June 1, 2026, Norpak LLC will be implementing a price an 8% price increase.

The impact of raw materials affected by energy, tariffs and transportation related charges are creating enormous cost pressure.

Orders placed prior to the close of business on or before May 29th calling for normal lead times will be invoiced at the current price. All orders placed on or after June 1 will be invoiced at new into stock pricing and quantities ordered need to be within your regular run-rate quantities as determined by order history.

We will work to get your new pricing to you as quickly as possible, but this letter serves as our official increase date of June 1, 2026.

If there are questions, please reach out to your representative.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Burke
Co-President
