

This architectural floor plan depicts a building with a complex, irregular footprint. The plan is divided into several functional zones, each color-coded for clarity:

- Blue Zones (A01.1 to A01.8): These areas represent office or administrative spaces. They include numerous individual offices (e.g., A01.1.1, A01.1.2, A01.1.3, A01.2.1, A01.2.2, A01.2.3, A01.2.4, A01.2.5, A01.2.6, A01.2.7, A01.3.1, A01.3.2, A01.3.3, A01.3.4, A01.3.5, A01.3.6, A01.3.7, A01.3.8, A01.4.1, A01.4.2, A01.4.3, A01.4.4), meeting rooms, and a central corridor system (A01.1, A01.2, A01.3, A01.4).
- Yellow Zones (S 01 to S 32): These areas represent storage or warehouse spaces, organized into three distinct rows of numbered units.
- Grey Zones (A01.9.1 to A01.9.10): These areas likely represent technical rooms, equipment spaces, or specialized storage.

The plan is annotated with extensive dimensions in millimeters (mm) and meters (m), indicating the scale and proportions of the building. Key dimensions include overall lengths of 21200 mm, 23475 mm, 2300 mm, 18900 mm, 20900 mm, 46545 mm, 40355 mm, 5620 mm, 13535 mm, 19920 mm, 14035 mm, 1875 mm, 4010 mm, 2275 mm, 11625 mm, 17400 mm, 5775 mm, 15800 mm, 10525 mm, 10430 mm, and 15215 mm. Room numbers and area codes are clearly labeled throughout the plan.
