

Appendix A — Mini Case for Support

This Case for Support is copyable. Paste it wherever you need to, including your Raisely page.

This spring, I'm joining an Impact Nations Journey of Compassion. For 10–12 days, our team will serve vulnerable communities through mobile medical clinics, clean-water distribution, prayer, and evening gatherings where the gospel is shared and the sick are prayed for. I'm raising $3,000 to help cover the ground costs (transportation, lodging, meals, translators, insurance, and more), as well as a portion of on-the-ground ministry expenses, including medical supplies and water filters. Your gift will be receipted by Impact Nations. Would you partner with me so that together we can bring practical help and the hope of Jesus to families who need it?

Appendix B — Email and Call Scripts

Email #1 (launch)

Subject: I'm headed on a Journey of Compassion—will you partner with me?

Body: Warm greeting → your two stories → clear invitation with a specific amount and your link → gratitude → P.S. "I'd love to jump on a 10-minute call if you have questions."

Email #2 (impact and update)

Subject: Here's the impact your gift will have

Body: One paragraph on clinics/water filters/evening gatherings → "we're at ___%" → a fresh ask with a date.

Email #3 (final week)

Subject: Final update—help me cross the finish line

Body: One sentence of anticipation → clear ask → thank you.

Phone Call/Zoom Ask

"Thanks for taking a few minutes. I'm going on an Impact Nations Journey of Compassion. A typical day looks like: morning prayer, daytime clinics and outreach, and evening celebrations where the gospel is shared and people are prayed for. I'm excited because _____. Would you consider a gift of $_____ to help me reach $3,000 by [date]?"

Handling common responses

- Let me think about it: “Absolutely. I’ll text you my page and check back next week.”
- I can’t give now: “Thank you for considering it. Would you keep me in prayer—and can I send you a short update after the Journey?”
- Yes: “Thank you! I’ll text the link right now. Your partnership means so much.”

Appendix C — Texts and Social Posts

Launch Text (to a close friend):

“Hey! I just published my Journey of Compassion page. I’d love your partnership. Would you consider giving $___ (or any amount) to help me reach $3,000 by [date]? [link] Thank you!”

Mid-Campaign Text:

“Quick update—we’re ___% there! Every gift is making clinics and clean water possible. If you’re still considering a gift, here’s my page: [link]. Thank you for standing with me.”

Final-Week Text:

“Last week to give! I’m $___ from the goal and would love your help crossing the finish line. Any amount helps. [link] Thank you!”

Social Post (launch):

“I’m joining an Impact Nations Journey of Compassion this [month]. We’ll help host medical clinics, distribute water filters, and share the love of Jesus in word and deed. I’m raising $3,000 to make it possible—would you partner with me? [link]”

Appendix D — Simple Prayers and Scriptures for the Journey

- Make love your aim. (1 Cor. 14:1)
- Ask...and it will be given to you. (Matt. 7:7)

- You are my beloved... with you I am well pleased. (Luke 3:22)
- Your kingdom come. (Matt. 6:10)

Closing Prayer

Generous God, thank You for every person I'll speak with. Give me a listening heart, a clear voice, and a spirit of gratitude. Make this whole process a doorway into deeper friendship and Your Kingdom coming on earth as in heaven. Amen.
