About This Course

This Islamic Studies programme integrates Hikmah Pedagogy with core Islamic teachings to help children grow into thoughtful, confident and ethical young Muslims. Instead of lecture and memorisation, they learn through guided inquiry, storytelling, discussion and hands-on activities. The course builds their Islamic knowledge while strengthening their ability to think, reason and live by Islamic values in today's world. Each session is engaging, age-appropriate and connected to real-life situations children experience.

Each session will cover two of the three core themes each week, namely Adab and Akhlaq, Aqidah and Fiqh.

Target Participants

7 to 9 years old.

Objectives

This course equips students with five core thinking skills:

- Critical Thinking – The ability to reflect, ask meaningful questions and make value-guided judgments.
- Creative Thinking – The capacity to generate ideas and apply Islamic principles in imaginative ways.
- Caring Attitude – Empathy, adab and ethical responsibility toward others.
- Collaborative Skill – Working respectfully with peers and appreciating diverse viewpoints.
- Communication Skill – Expressing ideas clearly and confidently in discussion.

Learning Methodologies

- 1 Storytelling as a Stimulus for Reflection
- 2 Question Generation by Learners
- 3 Group Dialogue (Community of Inquiry)
- 4 Games, Roleplay and Hands-on Activities
- 5 Guided Reflection Towards Islamic Values

The teacher serves as a thinking coach, modelling adab and guiding students toward evidence-based, values-informed conclusions.

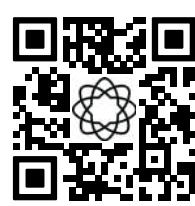

Duration

1 year

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the programme, students will:

- Apply five core thinking skills: critical, creative, caring, collaborative and communicative.
- Express ideas confidently and respectfully in group discussions.
- Show improved problem-solving and moral judgement, rooted in Islamic values.
- Practice positive behaviours such as kindness, responsibility and empathy.
- Display increased motivation and love for learning Islam.
