Proxies may also be solicited by telephone or email by directors, officers, or employees of the Company, or by agents engaged by the Company. Brokers, nominees, or other persons holding Common Shares in their names for others shall be reimbursed for their reasonable charges and expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of such Common Shares. The costs of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company.

NOTICE-AND-ACCESS

The Company has elected to deliver the materials in respect of the Meeting pursuant to the notice-and-access provisions (“Notice-and-Access Provisions”) concerning the delivery of proxy-related materials to Shareholders found in section 9.1.1 of National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations (“NI 51-102”), in the case of Registered Shareholders, and section 2.7.1 of National Instrument 54-101 – Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer (“NI 54-101”), in the case of Beneficial Shareholders. The Notice-and-Access Provisions are a set of rules that reduce the volume of proxy-related materials that must be physically mailed to Shareholders by allowing issuers to deliver meeting materials to Shareholders electronically by providing Shareholders with access to these materials online.

The use of the Notice-and-Access Provisions reduces paper waste and mailing costs to the Company. In order for the Company to utilize the Notice-and-Access Provisions to deliver proxy-related materials by posting this Information Circular (and if applicable, other materials) electronically on a website that is not System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (“SEDAR+”), the Company must send a notice to Shareholders, including Beneficial Shareholders, indicating that the proxy-related materials have been posted and explaining how a Shareholder can access them or obtain a paper copy of those materials from the Company.

In accordance with the Notice-and-Access Provisions, a notice and a form of proxy or voting instruction form (“VIF”) has been sent to all Shareholders informing them that this Information Circular, the Notice of Meeting, annual audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended October 31, 2025 (the “Financial Statements”) and management’s discussion and analysis of the Company’s results of operations and financial condition for the year ended October 31, 2025 (the “MD&A”) are available online and explaining how these materials may be accessed, in addition to outlining relevant dates and matters to be discussed at the Meeting. This Information Circular, the Notice of Meeting, Financial Statements and MD&A have been posted in full on the Company’s website at www.hightideinc.com/invest, through AGM Connect at www.agmconnect.com/current-meetings/hiti2026, under the Company’s SEDAR+ profile at www.sedarplus.ca, and in the Company’s filings with the United States Securities Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) at www.sec.gov/edgar.

Any Shareholder who wishes to receive a paper copy of the proxy material in connection with the Meeting must contact AGM Connect toll-free at 1-855-839-3715 and provide your Control Number, or you may electronically submit a request by emailing support@agmconnect.com up to the date of the Meeting or any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof, or thereafter by contacting the AGM Connect at 1-855-839-3715. In order to ensure that paper copies of the materials can be delivered to a requesting Shareholder in time for such Shareholder to review materials and return a form of proxy or VIF prior to the deadline to receive proxies, it is strongly suggested that Shareholders ensure their request is received as early as possible.

Shareholders who would like more information about the Notice-and-Access Provisions may contact the transfer agent, Olympia Trust Company at CSSnoticeandaccess@olympiatrust.com up to and including the date of the Meeting, including any adjournment(s) thereof.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Shareholders will receive a form of proxy for use at the Meeting. The persons named in the form of proxy are directors and/or officers of the Company. A Shareholder submitting a proxy has the right to appoint a nominee (who need not be a Shareholder) to represent such Shareholder at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy by inserting the name of the chosen nominee in the space provided for that purpose on the form of proxy and by striking out the printed names.

Shareholders must provide AGM Connect with their appointee's exact name and a valid email to access the Meeting. Appointees can only be validated at the Meeting using the unique Control Number provided to them by AGM Connect after their appointment has been received by the Shareholder. If Shareholder does not provide a valid email address, the appointee will not be able to access the Meeting.

A form of proxy will not be valid for the Meeting or any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof unless it is signed by the Shareholder or by the Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, it must be executed by a duly authorized officer or attorney thereof. The proxy, to be acted upon, must be dated, completed, signed and deposited with AGM Connect: (i) by mail using the enclosed return envelope addressed to AGM Connect, 372 Bay Street, Suite 1800, Toronto ON, M5H 2W9, (ii) by telephone at 1-855-839-3715 and follow the instructions provided (you will need to provide your unique Control Number), or (iii) via internet by following the instructions at www.AGMCVote.com. If you vote through the internet, you may also appoint another person to be your proxyholder. Please login to www.AGMCVote.com and complete the form on the voting page. You will require your unique Control Number (found on your Voter Information Sheet) and a valid email of choice. Your proxy or voting instructions must be received in each case no later than 10:00 a.m. (Calgary time) on August 7, 2026, or two business days preceding the date of any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) of the Meeting.

A Shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it prior to its use, in any manner permitted by law, including by an instrument in writing executed by the Shareholder or by his attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, executed by a duly authorized officer or attorney thereof and deposited at the registered office of the Company at Unit 112, 11127 - 15 Street N.E., Calgary, Alberta, T3K 2M4, any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof, at which the proxy is to be used or with the chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof.

ADVICE TO BENEFICIAL HOLDERS OF COMMON SHARES

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Shareholders who hold Common Shares through brokers and their nominees, as a substantial number of Shareholders do not hold Common Shares in their own name. Shareholders who hold their Common Shares through their brokers, intermediaries, trustees or other persons, or who otherwise do not hold their Common Shares in their own name (referred to herein as "Beneficial Shareholders") should note that only proxies deposited by Shareholders who appear on the records maintained by the Company's registrar and transfer agent as registered holders of Common Shares will be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. If Common Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a Beneficial Shareholder by a broker, those Common Shares will, in all likelihood, not be registered in the Shareholder's name. Such Common Shares will more likely be registered under the name of the Shareholder's broker or an agent of the broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited, which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). In the United States, the vast majority of such Common Shares are registered under the name Cede & Co. (the registration name for The Depository Trust Company, which acts as nominee for many United States brokerage firms). Common Shares held by brokers (or their agents) on behalf of a broker's client can only be voted or withheld at the direction of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, brokers and their agents and nominees are prohibited from voting shares for the broker's clients. Each Beneficial Shareholder should therefore ensure that the voting instructions are communicated to the appropriate person well in advance of the Meeting.

Existing regulatory policy requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of shareholders' meetings. The various brokers and intermediaries have their own mailing procedures and provide their own return instructions to clients, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at the Meeting. Often the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Shareholder by its broker (or the agent of the broker) is substantially similar to the instrument of proxy provided directly to the Registered Shareholders by the Company. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the Registered Shareholder (i.e. the broker or agent of the broker) how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder. The Beneficial Shareholder is requested to complete and return the VIF to them by mail or facsimile. Alternatively, the Beneficial Shareholder can call 1-855-839-3715 or email: voteproxy@agmconnect.com to vote the Common Shares held by the Beneficial Shareholder.

Beneficial Shareholders who have not objected to their intermediary disclosing certain ownership information about themselves to the Company are called Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners ("NOBOs"). Beneficial Shareholders who have objected to their intermediary disclosing ownership information about themselves to the Company are called Objecting Beneficial Owners (“OBOs”). In accordance with the requirements of NI 54-101, the Company has elected to send the Notice of Meeting and this Information Circular (collectively, the “Meeting Materials”) directly to NOBOs.

The Meeting Materials are being sent to both Registered Shareholders and Beneficial Shareholders. If you are a Beneficial Shareholder, and the Company or its agent has sent these materials to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of securities have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the intermediary holding on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Company (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions.

The Meeting Materials sent to the NOBOs who have not waived the right to receive meeting materials are accompanied by a VIF, instead of a proxy. By returning the VIF in accordance with the instructions noted on it, a NOBO can instruct the voting of the Common Shares owned by the NOBO. VIFs, whether provided by the Company or by an intermediary, should be completed and returned in accordance with the specific instructions of the VIF. The purpose of this procedure is to permit Beneficial Shareholders to direct the voting of the Common Shares which they beneficially own. Should a Beneficial Shareholder who receives a VIF wish to attend the Meeting or have someone else attend on the Beneficial Shareholder’s behalf, the Beneficial Shareholder may request a legal proxy as set forth in the VIF, which will grant the Beneficial Shareholder, or Beneficial Shareholder’s nominee, the right to attend and vote at the Meeting.

A Beneficial Shareholder who receives a VIF cannot use the form to vote Common Shares directly at the Meeting. The VIF must be returned to the intermediary (or instructions respecting the voting Common Shares must otherwise be communicated to the intermediary) well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Common Shares voted. Although a Beneficial Shareholder may not be recognized at the Meeting for the purpose of voting Common Shares registered in the name of the broker, a Beneficial Shareholder may attend the Meeting as proxyholder for the Registered Shareholder and vote Common Shares in that capacity. Beneficial Shareholders who wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote their Common Shares as proxyholder for the registered holder, should contact AGM Connect by emailing: support@agmconnect.com well in advance of the Meeting to determine the step necessary to permit them to indirectly vote their Common Shares as a proxyholder.

All references to Shareholders in this Information Circular and the accompanying VIF or proxy and Notice of Meeting are to Registered Shareholders unless specifically stated otherwise.

VOTING OF PROXIES

All Common Shares represented at the Meeting by properly executed proxies will be voted on any matter that may be called for and, where a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon has been specified in the accompanying form of proxy, the Common Shares represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with such instructions. In the absence of any such instruction, the persons whose names appear on the printed form of proxy will vote in favour of all the matters set out thereon.

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein. If any other business or amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting properly comes before the Meeting, then discretionary authority is conferred upon the person appointed in the proxy to vote in the manner they see fit, in accordance with their best judgment.

At the time of the printing of this Information Circular, Management knows of no such amendment, variation or other matter to come before the Meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notice of Meeting.

percent or more of any class of voting securities of the Company, on a non-diluted basis.

5. Amended and Restated Shareholder Rights Plan

On April 10, 2025, the Board adopted a shareholder rights plan (the "Shareholder Rights Plan") and authorized the Company to enter into a shareholder rights plan agreement (the "Shareholder Rights Plan Agreement") with Olympia Trust Company, as rights agent. The Shareholder Rights Plan Agreement was ratified, confirmed and approved by shareholders on May 29, 2025. At the Meeting, shareholders will be asked to approve an ordinary resolution confirming and approving the amendment and restatement of the Shareholder Rights Plan (the "Amended and Restated Rights Plan"). A summary of the principal terms and proposed amendments are provided below. The full text of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is available on the Company's profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

Proposed Amendments

The Amended and Restated Rights Plan contains substantially the same terms and conditions as the current version of the Shareholder Rights Plan. The key amendments pursuant to the Amended and Restated Rights Plan include: (i) expanding the definition of “Acquiring Person” to include (a) cannabis retail operator licence holders in Ontario who, together with their affiliates, would cause or would reasonably be expected to cause the Company to be non-compliant with Section 2 of General, O. Reg. 468/18 made under the Cannabis Licence Act, 2018 (Ontario), and (b) cannabis retail store licence holders in British Columbia who would cause or would reasonably be expected to cause the Company to be non-compliant with requirements applicable to a cannabis retail store licence relating to holding or having control or influence over more than the prescribed number of licences, or the requirements set out in Sections 6 and 7 of Cannabis Licensing Regulation, BC Reg. 202/2018; and (ii) other amendments of an administrative nature, including correcting statutory references and updating defined terms.

Overview of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan

The approval and confirmation of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is not being recommended in response to or in contemplation of any known take-over bid or other similar transaction. Neither management nor the Board is aware of any pending, threatened or proposed acquisition or take-over bid of the Company. The adoption of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan does not change the duty of the Board to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company. Further, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is not intended as a means to prevent a take-over of the Company, to secure the continuance of management or the Board in their respective offices, or to deter fair offers for the shares. In the event of a take-over bid or similar transaction, the Board will continue to have the right and responsibility to take such action and to make such recommendations to shareholders as are considered necessary or appropriate. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan applies to the shares, securities that are convertible into shares, as well as any other shares with voting rights that may be issued by the Company. Currently, the common shares are the only class of shares issued and outstanding. Should the Company issue a new class of voting shares in the future, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan would apply to those voting shares in the same manner described below. The Company does not have any present intention of issuing any other class of voting shares.

Summary of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan

The Amended and Restated Rights Plan provides a mechanism whereby a take-over bid must remain open for at least 105 days (unless shortened by the Company in accordance with applicable securities legislation) and must remain open for a further 10 days after the acquiring person publicly announces that the shares deposited or tendered and not withdrawn constitute more than 50% of the shares outstanding held by independent shareholders. The Company has issued rights (“Rights”) as of April 10, 2025 (the “Effective Date”) to all shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Shareholder Rights Plan. One Right was issued for each outstanding common share or other security which entitles the holder to vote generally in the election of directors (“Voting Share”) that was outstanding on April 10, 2025 and one Right has been and shall be issued for each Voting Share issued after April 10, 2025 and prior to the earlier of the separation time (as described below) and the termination of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan. The Rights will automatically trade with and be transferred with their underlying shares unless and until an event occurs that causes a separation, which would include a flip-in event (as described below) or the announcement of an intention to commence a take-over bid (other than Permitted Bid (as described below)). The Rights are not exercisable unless and until there is such a separation. The issuance of the Rights does not change the manner in which shareholders currently trade their shares.

A flip-in event would occur if a person were to become an acquiring person, for example, if a person acquires beneficial ownership of at least 20% of the shares other than pursuant to certain exceptions such as a Permitted Bid or an exempt acquisition. If the person acquires shares under a Permitted Bid or exempt acquisition or one of the other specified exceptions, they are not considered to be an acquiring person and no flip-in event occurs. If a person does become an acquiring person, each Right then entitles each holder (other than the acquiring person) to purchase shares at a 50% discount. Each holder of a Right may then purchase that number of shares having a fair market value at the relevant time equal to twice the exercise price for an amount equal to the exercise price, in effect permitting shares to be acquired at a 50% discount to the market price at the time of exercise.

The acquiring person is not permitted to exercise any Rights. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan provides that the acquiring person’s Rights become null and void when the flip-in event occurs. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan also provides that the Board may either waive the Amended and Restated Rights Plan or redeem the Rights at a minimal price in certain circumstances. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan thereby encourages unsolicited bidders to either make a Permitted Bid or to approach the Board with their offer and attempt to convince the Board to either waive the flip-in event or to redeem the Rights. If the offer is coercive or inadequate, the Board can choose not to cooperate with the bidder and not to agree to waive the Amended and Restated Rights Plan or redeem the Rights.

Key Characteristics

The key characteristics of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan are described in more detail below:

Creation and Issuance of Rights. Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Rights Plan, the Company issued one Right for each Voting Share outstanding on April 10, 2025 and has issued and will continue to issue one Right for each additional Voting Share issued after April 10, 2025 but prior to the separation time or the expiry of the Rights. Certificates issued for shares after April 10, 2025 (but prior to the close of business at the separation time or the expiry of the Rights) will include a legend evidencing the Rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing, certificates representing Voting Shares that were issued prior to approval of the Shareholder Rights Plan do not require a legend to evidence the Rights.

Term of Amended and Restated Rights Plan. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan must be approved at the Meeting in order for the amendments to become effective. In addition, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan must be reconfirmed by shareholders every three years to remain in effect. It may also be terminated earlier by the Board in certain circumstances.

Separation Time. The Rights can become separated or unstapled from the shares to which they are attached and then trade separately from the shares. This separation time will generally only occur on the close of business on the 10th trading day after the earlier of: (a) the first date of public disclosure of facts indicating that a person has become an acquiring person (i.e. that there has been a flip-in event); (b) the date of commencement or first public announcement of a non-permitted take-over bid; or (c) the date on which a Permitted Bid ceases to qualify as a Permitted Bid. Unless and until the separation time occurs, the Rights will continue to be attached to and trade with the shares.

Flip-in Event. When a person becomes an acquiring person, all Rights holders, other than the acquiring person, are entitled to purchase shares at a 50% discount to market price at the time of exercise. Acquiring Person.

Acquiring Person. An acquiring person is a person that becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares, or a licensed producer or a cannabis retail operator in Ontario or a federal licence holder or cannabis retail operator licence holder in British Columbia whose Beneficial Ownership of Voting Shares would cause or would reasonably be expected to cause the Company to be non-compliant with applicable cannabis licensing regulations. The foregoing is subject to the following exemptions: a voting share reduction (generally, a repurchase or redemption of shares by the Company which has the effect of increasing the person's or company's percentage ownership of the Company); a permitted bid acquisition (an acquisition of shares made pursuant to a Permitted Bid or Competing Permitted Bid); an exempt acquisition (an acquisition in respect of which the Board has waived the application of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan or an acquisition made pursuant to a Shareholder-approved transaction such as an amalgamation or arrangement or an acquisition made as an intermediate step in a larger transaction where the acquiring party has then distributed the shares out to its security holders); or a pro rata acquisition (generally, the acquisition of shares pursuant to a rights offering, public offering or private placement to the extent necessary to prevent dilution of the person's or company's shareholding).

Beneficial Ownership, Exemptions for Portfolio Managers and Others, and Permitted Lock-up Agreements. In determining whether a person has become an acquiring person, all shares over which the person has beneficial ownership must be included. A person is deemed to beneficially own any shares which are owned by its associates or affiliates or by persons or companies "acting jointly or in concert" with such person for the purpose of acquiring shares and any shares which it has the right to become the owner of within 60 days. Specific exclusions clarify that portfolio managers, fund managers, trust companies, crown agents engaged in the management of investment funds and pension plan and registered plan administrators are not caught simply because they may have the right to vote shares managed by them for others.

A person may also be considered to be the beneficial owner of shares that are subject to a lock-up agreement. A lock-up agreement is an agreement under which a Shareholder (a "Locked-Up Shareholder") agrees to deposit or tender its shares to a particular bid (the "Lock-Up Bid"). The person who makes the Lock-Up Bid will be deemed to be the beneficial owner of the shares of the Locked-Up Shareholder unless the agreement it enters into with the Locked-Up Shareholder is a "permitted lock-up agreement". In order for a lock-up agreement to constitute a "permitted lock-up agreement", certain conditions must be met (a "Permitted Lock-Up Agreement").

A Permitted Lock-Up Agreement is one which permits the Locked-up Shareholder to withdraw its shares from the lock-up to tender to another take-over bid or support another transaction that will provide greater value to the Locked-Up Shareholder than the Lock-Up Bid, subject to certain exceptions. If the Lock-Up Bid is for less than 100% of the shares, a Permitted Lock-Up Agreement must also permit the Locked-Up Shareholder to withdraw its shares from the lock-up to tender to another take-over bid or support another transaction offering to acquire a greater number of shares for at least the same consideration per Share, again subject to certain exceptions. A Permitted Lock-Up Agreement is not allowed to require a Locked-Up Shareholder to pay excessive fees, penalties, expense reimbursement or other amounts if it fails to deposit or tender its shares to the Lock-Up Bid or withdraws shares previously tendered in order to deposit such shares to another take-over bid or support another transaction.

Permitted Bid and Competing Permitted Bid. An offeror can avoid causing a flip-in event by making a bid that meets all of the requirements of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan (a “Permitted Bid”). A Permitted Bid must: (i) be made by way of a take-over bid circular; (ii) be made to all shareholders of record, other than the offeror; (iii) be open for acceptance for at least 105 days (or such shorter period as permitted by securities legislation); (iv) require a minimum deposit of more than 50% of the shares held by independent shareholders (i.e., generally, shareholders who are not, or are not related to, the acquiring person); (v) unless the take-over bid is withdrawn, allow the shares to be deposited up to the close of business on the first date on which the deposited shares are taken up or paid for; (vi) allow the shares deposited pursuant to the take-over bid to be withdrawn until they are taken up and paid for; and (vii) if the required minimum amount of shares are deposited, require the offeror to make a public announcement of that fact and leave the take-over bid open for deposits of shares for an additional 10 days after the announcement.

The Amended and Restated Rights Plan also allows for a competing Permitted Bid (a “Competing Permitted Bid”) to be made while a Permitted Bid is in existence. A Competing Permitted Bid is a take-over bid that is made after a Permitted Bid has been made but prior to its expiry, termination or withdrawal and that satisfies all the requirements of a Permitted Bid as described above, except that no shares can be taken up or paid for prior to the close of business on the last day of the minimum initial deposit period that such take-over bid must remain open for deposits.

Redemption Rights and Waiver. An offeror can also avoid causing a flip-in event by negotiating with the Board and convincing them to allow a take-over bid that is not a Permitted Bid but is made fairly to all holders of shares. In such circumstances, the Board can waive the flip-in event and deem the take-over bid to be an exempt acquisition such that the reduced exercise price does not come into effect. Any such waiver in respect of a particular take-over bid will also constitute a waiver of any other take-over bid made to all holders of shares during the period when the first take-over bid is outstanding. The Board can also waive the flip-in event in certain other circumstances; for example, if a person has inadvertently become an acquiring person and within a specified period of time reduces its shareholdings.

Further, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan permits the Board to redeem (buy back and cancel) the Rights for a nominal price ($0.00001 per Right) in certain circumstances. The redemption right must generally be made for all and not less than all the Rights and must be made prior to the occurrence of a flip-in event.

Exercise Price. The exercise price is three times the current market value of the shares from time to time. Before a flip-in event, a Rights holder would receive one Share upon the exercise of a Right, the effect of which is to render the Rights of little or no value at the time of issue. After a flip-in event, all Rights holders, other than the acquiring person, would be entitled to purchase shares at a 50% discount to the market value. The Exercise Price and the number of Rights are subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of certain events, including a subdivision or consolidation of the shares, the declaration of a dividend payable through the issuance of certain securities or the issuance of certain securities in exchange for or in lieu of shares.

Trading of Rights. Until the separation time, the Rights will be evidenced by the outstanding certificates for shares and the Rights may be transferred with, and only with, the shares. Unless and until the separation time occurs (or earlier termination or expiration of the Rights), the surrender for transfer of a certificate representing shares will also constitute the transfer of the Rights associated with the shares represented by the certificate. If the separation time occurs, the Company will either mail separate certificates evidencing the Rights or otherwise register the Rights in an uncertificated “book entry form”, but in either case will maintain a separate register for the holders of Rights.

Deemed Redemption. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan provides that, in the event a person acquires shares pursuant to a Permitted Bid or an exempt acquisition, the Rights are no longer valid and are deemed to have been redeemed by the Board.

Rationale for Adopting the Amended and Restated Rights Plan

In asking shareholders to approve the Amended and Restated Rights Plan, the Board considered the legislative framework in Canada governing take-over bids and cannabis regulation.

Under provincial securities legislation, a take-over bid generally means an offer to acquire voting securities of a person or persons, where the securities subject to the offer to acquire, together with securities already owned by the bidder and certain related parties, constitute 20% or more of the outstanding securities. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan is designed to address certain concerns raised by the existing legislative framework by creating mechanisms to assist in maximizing shareholder value in the face of a take-over bid and encouraging fair and equal treatment of all shareholders.

Notwithstanding amendments that were made to the legislative framework for take-over bids in 2016, there are still concerns related to the potential for unequal treatment of shareholders due to the possibility that control of the Company could be acquired pursuant to a private agreement in which one or a small group of shareholders dispose of shares at a premium to market price, which premium is not shared with the other shareholders. In addition, a person may slowly accumulate shares through stock exchange acquisitions which may result, over time, in an acquisition of control without payment of fair value for control or a fair sharing of a control premium among all shareholders. The Amended and Restated Rights Plan is intended to mitigate the potential for such “creeping” take-over bids. It does so by encouraging a potential bidder to proceed either by way of a Permitted Bid (as defined in the Plan), which requires the take-over bid to satisfy certain minimum standards designed to promote fairness, or with the concurrence of the Board.

In addition, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is designed to address risks specific to the Company's operations in the cannabis industry. The Company holds cannabis retail licences in multiple Canadian provinces, including Ontario and British Columbia, which are subject to regulatory requirements that restrict the degree of ownership, control or influence that certain cannabis licence holders may have over other licensees. If a person who holds cannabis licences in Ontario or British Columbia were to acquire a significant ownership interest in the Company, such acquisition could cause or would reasonably be expected to cause the Company to become non-compliant with applicable cannabis licensing regulations. Non-compliance with these requirements could jeopardize the Company's existing cannabis licences and, by extension, its ability to carry on its business operations. The amendments to the definition of "Acquiring Person" in the Amended and Restated Rights Plan are intended to mitigate this risk by ensuring that such acquisitions are captured by the plan's protective mechanisms, thereby safeguarding the Company's cannabis licences, its ongoing compliance with applicable cannabis laws and the interests of its shareholders.

Conditional Approval of the TSX Venture Exchange

The Company has applied for conditional approval of the TSX Venture Exchange in respect of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan and anticipates receiving such approval prior to the Meeting. Such approval, if received, will be conditional on the approval of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan by shareholders at the Meeting. In the event that the TSX Venture Exchange conditional approval is not received prior to the Meeting, or the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is not approved by shareholders at the Meeting, the amendments will not become effective. The Company will provide a further update, by way of press release or notice to shareholders, if conditional approval is received prior to the Meeting.

The Board has determined that the Amended and Restated Rights Plan is in the best interests of the Company and the shareholders and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan Resolution. Unless otherwise directed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the Amended and Restated Rights Plan Resolution.

SCHEDULE “A” STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

(FOR THE YEAR ENDED OCTOBER 31, 2025)

1. Compensation Discussion and Analysis Introduction

The purpose of this Compensation Discussion and Analysis is to provide information about High Tide Inc.’s (the “Corporation”) philosophy, objectives and processes regarding executive compensation. This disclosure is intended to communicate the compensation provided to: (i) the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation (the “CEO”), (ii) the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation (the “CFO”), (iii) each of the three most highly compensated executive officers of the Corporation, if any, whose individual total compensation was more than $150,000 for the year ended October 31, 2025 (the “Previous Fiscal Year”), (iv) each individual who satisfies the criteria under paragraph (iii) but for the fact the individual was not an executive officer of the Corporation, nor acting in a similar capacity, at as October 31, 2025 (collectively, the “Named Executive Officers”) and (v) the directors of the Corporation. During the Previous Fiscal Year, the Named Executive Officers of the Corporation were Harkirat (Raj) Grover, Mayank Mahajan, Andy Palalas, Aman Sood, and Omar Khan. The description of the Corporation’s compensation philosophy and objectives and the elements of such compensation for the Previous Fiscal Year is set forth below:

2. Compensation Governance

The compensation practices of the Corporation are based upon the recommendations of the Compensation Committee of the Board, which formally approves those recommendations as appropriate.

The Compensation Committee of the Corporation comprises of Ms. Andrea Elliott (Chair), Mr. Christian Sinclair and Mr. Arthur Kwan, each of whom is considered to be independent. Each of the Compensation Committee members have familiarity with compensation practices across publicly listed companies owing to their experience as investors in the retail and Cannabis sectors.

Further details as to the professional experience of the members of the Compensation Committee is contained in the section “Election of Directors.”

The Compensation Committee is responsible for recommending the levels of and nature of compensation paid to the directors and officers of the Corporation, as well as the management working in its subsidiaries. It meets throughout the year as required and on an ad hoc basis. Typically, it makes recommendations to the Board on an annual basis as regards levels of compensation and any changes in practices. To the degree it believes is appropriate, the Compensation Committee seeks advice from independent practitioners with expertise in the field of compensation matters.

In the third quarter of the Previous Financial Year, the Compensation Committee retained Global Governance Advisors Inc. (“GGA”) an independent compensation and governance advisory firm, with substantial experience working in the Cannabis sector. GGA’s mandate for the Compensation Committee was to review the Change of Control provisions for the NEOs.

The Compensation Committee led a review of Change of Control provisions amongst a peer group it considered relevant in terms of size and industry for Change of control provisions which resulted in revisions to change of control provision for NEO’s. In addition, the Compensation Committee considered the compensation results published in multiple compensation survey sources related to the cannabis sector when determining compensation for this Fiscal Year.

3. Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The philosophy of the Corporation in determining compensation is that the compensation should (i) reflect the Corporation’s current state of maturity, (ii) reflect the Corporation’s performance, (iii) reflect the individual performance, (iv) align the interests of executives with those of the Shareholders, (v) assist the Corporation in retaining key individuals, and (vi) reflect the Corporation’s overall financial status.

The executive compensation program adopted by the Corporation and applied to its executive officers is designed to attract and retain qualified and experienced executives who will contribute to the success of the Corporation. The executive compensation program attempts to ensure that the compensation of the senior executive officers provides a competitive base compensation package and a strong link between corporate performance and compensation. Senior executive officers are motivated through the program to enhance long-term shareholder value and rewarded for their yearly individual contribution in the context of overall annual corporate performance.

4. Elements of Compensation

The executive compensation program during the Previous Fiscal Year consisted of three principal components: base compensation, discretionary cash bonuses and long-term compensation in the form of compensation securities consisting of stock options (“Options”) and restricted share units (“RSUs”) issued pursuant to the Corporation’s 20% fixed equity incentive plan (the “Omnibus Plan”). For the Previous Fiscal Year, all executive compensation was determined and administered by the board of directors of the Corporation (the “Board”) based on recommendations by the compensation committee of the Corporation (the “Compensation Committee”).

Information with respect to the Compensation Committee and its policies and practices for the compensation of the directors and executive officers of the Corporation can be found in Schedule “F” to the Corporation’s management information circular dated April 17, 2025 prepared in connection with the annual and special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation (“Shareholders”) which took place on May 29, 2025.

Compensation Peer Group

To ensure market competitiveness, the Compensation Committee considers comparable compensation data from Canadian cannabis and consumer packaged goods companies that are generally of similar size and scope and that may represent the market in which the Corporation competes for executive talent. The composition of the external compensation peer group is reviewed periodically by the Compensation Committee for its ongoing business relevance to the Corporation. The publicly available compensation data from the external compensation peer group was used as a main factor in the review and consideration of compensation levels and the composition of compensation for the Corporation’s executive officers and directors.

The factors assessed by the Compensation Committee in determining the external compensation peer group included operational and geographical focus, exchanges where issuers’ securities are listed, market capitalization, total revenue, total assets, annual cash flows, and annual levels of capital expenditures.

The following table reflects the composition of the Corporation’s external compensation peer group for the Previous Fiscal Year:

External Compensation Peer Group
Andrew Peller Ltd.	Organigram Holdings Inc.
Canopy Growth Corp.	Planet 13 Holdings Inc.
CareRx Corp.	Sundial Inc
Charlotte’s Web Holdings Inc.	Terrascend Corp
Container Store Group Inc.	Tilray Brands Inc
Corby Spirit and Wine Ltd.	Trulieve Cannabis Corp
Cresco Labs Inc.	Turning Points Brands Inc
Lanthus Capital Holdings Inc.	Village Farms International Inc.

At the time of selecting the peer group, High Tide’s size was positioned at the 44th, 55th, and 47th percentile on a market cap, revenue, and EBITDA basis, respectively.

Base Compensation

Base compensation for the Named Executive Officers is set annually, having regard to the individual’s job responsibilities, contribution, experience and proven or expected performance, market conditions, as well as to the current and future financial condition of the Corporation. It is designed to provide income certainty and to attract and retain executives. In setting base compensation levels, consideration is given to such factors as level of responsibility, experience and expertise. Subjective factors such as leadership, commitment and attitude are also considered. Management and the Board have generally considered publicly available information regarding the compensation levels of executives of similarly sized companies within the industry in setting compensation. To ensure that the Named Executive Officers’ compensation is strongly competitive within the industry, the base compensation will, from time to time, be reviewed by independent external advisors and correlated with operational results.

Named Executive Officers and directors are not permitted to purchase financial instruments (including prepaid variable forward contracts, equity swaps, collars, or units of exchange funds) that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of equity securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by the Named Executive Officer or director.

Discretionary Annual Performance Cash Bonus

The executive compensation program for the Named Executive Officers includes eligibility for discretionary incentive cash bonuses. The bonus criteria are set at the beginning of the performance period by the Board at their discretion. Bonuses may be awarded based on the attainment of corporate objectives and the executive’s performance and contribution, at the final discretion of the Board. Objectives may include strategic, financial, and operational performance goals, as well as personal performance objectives, including implementation of new strategic initiatives, the development of innovations, organizational development and other factors. The resulting bonus entitlements, if any, will therefore vary between Named Executive Officers.

Discretionary Annual Performance Cash Bonus Plan Changes for Financial Year October 31, 2025

The Compensation Committee, in collaboration with Global Governance Advisors (GGA), developed a corporate balanced scorecard to determine bonus awards for the financial year ending October 31, 2025. Together, the Compensation Committee and GGA have established defined performance categories, criteria, and weightings, utilizing a formula-based performance bonus structure of the balanced score card tied to specific corporate objectives for the full financial year.

Omnibus Plan

On April 19, 2022, the Board approved the Omnibus Plan, which was effective June 2, 2022, upon the Corporation receiving disinterested Shareholder approval (the “Effective Date”), pursuant to which the Corporation is able to issue share-based and cash-based long-term incentives to eligible participants. The Omnibus Plan replaced the former option plan and RSU plan of the Corporation (together, the “Predecessor Plans”). A copy of the Omnibus Plan is available under the Corporation’s SEDAR+ profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

All directors, officers, employees, management company employees and consultants of the Corporation or its affiliates (“Participants”) are eligible to receive Awards (as defined below) under the Omnibus Plan, subject to the terms of the Omnibus Plan. Awards include Options, stock appreciation rights, restricted share awards, RSUs, performance shares, performance units, cash-based awards and other share-based awards (collectively, the “Awards”), under the Omnibus Plan.

To provide a long-term component to the executive compensation program, the Corporation adopted the Omnibus Plan. During the year ended October 31, 2025, the Corporation granted an aggregate total of 708,164 Awards to Named Executive Officers and directors, comprised of 0 Options and 708,164 RSUs. The maximization of Shareholder value is encouraged by granting Awards. Recommendations for Awards have historically considered factors such as Awards made in previous years, the number of Awards outstanding per individual and the individual’s level of responsibility.

Risk Analysis

The Board and Compensation Committee considered risks associated with executive compensation and do not believe that the Corporation’s executive compensation policies and practices encourage its executive officers to take inappropriate or excessive risks. Aside from a fixed base salary, Named Executive Officers are compensated through the granting of Awards, which are compensation that is both “at risk” and associated with long-term value creation. The value of such compensation is dependent upon Shareholder return over Award vesting periods which reduces the incentive for executives to take inappropriate or excessive risks as their long-term compensation is at risk.

5. Performance Graph

The following graph compares the total cumulative return to a Shareholder who invested $100 in common shares of the Corporation (“Common Shares”) on December 17, 2018, with the cumulative total returns of the S&P/TSX Composite Index and Horizons Marijuana Life Sciences Index ETF as at the October 31 year end date of the Corporation for each year following December 17, 2018:

Notes:

1. As at December 18, 2018, the Corporation was trading on Canadian Securities Exchange under the symbol “HITI”.
2. Effective market opening on November 19, 2020, the Common Shares commenced trading on the TSX Venture Exchange under the stock symbol “HITI”.

As described herein, the compensation policy for the Corporation’s directors and Named Executive Officers is primarily tied to the financial performance of the business and long-term Shareholder value and not specifically to Common Share performance.

STOCK OPTION PLANS AND OTHER INCENTIVE PLANS

Omnibus Plan

On April 19, 2022, the Board approved the Omnibus Plan, which was effective as at the Effective Date. The Omnibus Plan replaced the Predecessor Plans. A summary of the material terms of the Processor Plans can be found in the Corporation's management information circular for the year 2022.

Purpose of the Omnibus Plan

The Omnibus Plan serves several purposes for the Corporation. One purpose is to advance the interests of the Corporation by developing the interests of Participants in the growth and development of the Corporation by providing such persons with the opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Corporation. All Participants are considered eligible to be selected to receive an Award under the Omnibus Plan. Another purpose is to attract and retain key talent and valuable personnel, who are necessary to the Corporation's success and reputation, with a competitive compensation mechanism. Finally, the Omnibus Plan aligns the interests of Participants with those of Shareholders by devising a compensation mechanism which encourages the prudent maximization of distributions to Shareholders and long-term growth. The Omnibus Plan is administered by the Board, or if applicable, a committee of the Board.

Omnibus Plan Maximum, Limits and Vesting Restrictions

The maximum number of Common Shares available and reserved for issuance, at any time, under the Omnibus Plan, together with any other security-based compensation arrangements adopted by the Corporation, including the Predecessor Plans, was fixed at 20% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares on the Effective Date, namely 12,617,734 Common Shares.

Common Shares underlying outstanding Awards that for any reason expire or are terminated, forfeited or cancelled shall again be available for issuance under the Omnibus Plan. Also, any Common Shares forfeited, cancelled or otherwise not issued for any reason under the predecessor Options or predecessor RSUs pursuant to the Predecessor Plans, respectively, shall be available for grants under the Omnibus Plan. Any predecessor Options or predecessor RSUs outstanding under the Predecessor Plans shall remain subject to the terms of those awards and the Predecessor Plans, respectively.

Awards that by their terms are to be settled solely in cash shall not be counted against the maximum number of Common Shares available for the issuance of Awards under the Omnibus Plan.

No Awards, other than Options, may vest before the date that is one year following the date it is granted or issued, although the vesting required of any such Awards may be accelerated for a Participant who dies or who ceases to be an eligible Participant under the Omnibus Plan in connection with a Change in Control (as such term is defined in the Omnibus Plan), take-over bid, reverse takeover or other similar transaction.

The aggregate number of Awards which may be granted to any one Participant that is a consultant of the Corporation in any 12-month period must not exceed 2% of the issued Common Shares calculated at the first such grant date. In addition, the aggregate number of Options granted to all persons retained to provide investor relations activities must not exceed 2% of the issued Common Shares in any 12-month period calculated at the first such grant date (and including any Participant that performs investor relations activities or whose role or duties primarily consist of investor relations activities) and any such Options granted to any person retained to provide investor relations activities must vest in a period of not less than 12 months from the date of grant of the Award and with no more than 25% of the Options vesting in any three month period notwithstanding any other provision of the Omnibus Plan. The maximum aggregate number of Common Shares that are issuable pursuant to all Awards granted or issued to Insiders (as such term is defined in the Omnibus Plan), as a group, must not exceed 10% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares at any point in time, unless the Corporation has obtained the requisite disinterested Shareholder approval. The maximum aggregate number of Common Shares that are issuable pursuant to all Awards granted or issued in any 12-month period to Insiders, as a group, must not exceed 10% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares, calculated as at the date any Award is granted or issued to any Insider, unless the Corporation has obtained the requisite disinterested Shareholder approval. The maximum aggregate number of Common Shares issuable pursuant to Awards granted to any one Participant in any 12-month period must not exceed 5% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares, calculated on the date the Award is granted or issued to the Participant, unless the Corporation has obtained the requisite disinterested Shareholder approval. Participants who provide investor relations activities may not receive any Awards other than Options.

As at October 31, 2025, the Corporation had issued an aggregate total of 3,422,145 Awards outstanding under the Omnibus Plan, comprised of 2,503,457 Options and 918,688 RSUs and a total of 9,195,598 Common Shares remained authorized for issuance under the Omnibus Plan.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Compensation of Directors

Our directors' compensation program is designed to attract and retain the most qualified individuals to serve on the Board. The Board, through the Compensation Committee, will be responsible for reviewing and approving any changes to the directors' compensation arrangements. Director compensation is structured to recognize Directors for their skills, knowledge, experience and attention in overseeing the governance of the Corporation, and to align with Shareholders' interests. The Compensation Committee reviews Director compensation and recommends any changes to the Board to ensure that Director compensation is competitive. In making its recommendation, the Compensation Committee considers:

- The level of compensation required to fairly reflect the risks and responsibilities of serving as a Director; and
- The alignment of the interests of Directors and Shareholders by setting the retainers within a reasonable and competitive range of the Corporation's Peer Group.

In consideration for serving on the Board, each Director that is not an employee is paid an annual cash retainer and an annual equity retainer, and is reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred while serving as Directors.

In the financial year October 31, 2025, non-employee Directors of the Corporation were entitled to be paid as members of the Board, and, if applicable, as members of any committee of the Board.

The Corporation does not provide a meeting fee for Board members. The total retainer is deemed to be full payment for the role of Director. An exception to this approach would be made in the event of a special transaction or other special circumstance that would require more meetings than are typically required.

The equity retainers are paid in stock options and RSUs on an annual basis. The cash retainers are paid on a quarterly basis.

The following table sets forth all compensation to the non-Named Executive Officer directors during the year ended October 31, 2025:

SCHEDULE “B” CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

Capitalized terms used in this Schedule “B” but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Information Circular to which this Schedule “B” is appended.

Corporate Governance

Corporate governance relates to the activities of the Board, the members of which are elected by and are accountable to the Shareholders and takes into account the role of the individual members of Management who are appointed by the Board and who are charged with the day-to-day management of the Company. National Policy 58-201 – Corporate Governance Guidelines (“NP 58-201”) establishes corporate governance guidelines which apply to all public companies. These guidelines are not intended to be prescriptive but to be used by issuers in developing their own corporate governance practices. The Board is committed to sound corporate governance practices, which are both in the interest of the Shareholders and contribute to effective and efficient decision making.

Pursuant to National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices (“NI 58-101”), the Company is required to disclose its corporate governance practices, as summarized below. The Board will continue to monitor such practices on an ongoing basis and, when necessary, implement such additional practices as it deems appropriate.

Board of Directors

The Board is currently composed of five directors:

1. Harkirat (Raj) Grover;
2. Christian Sinclair;
3. Kathleen Skerrett;
4. Arthur Kwan; and
5. Menashe Kestenbaum.

NI 58-201 suggests that the board of directors of every reporting issuer should be constituted with a majority of individuals who qualify as “independent” directors, within the meaning set out under National Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees (“NI 52-110”), which provides that a director is independent if he or she has no direct or indirect “material relationship” with the company. “Material relationship” is defined as a relationship which could, in the view of a company’s board of directors, be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of a director’s independent judgment. In assessing NI 58-101 and making the foregoing determinations, the circumstances of each director have been examined in relation to a number of factors.

Of the current directors, Harkirat (Raj) Grover is the President and CEO of the Company and is therefore not considered to be “independent”. The remaining directors, Christian Sinclair, Kathleen Skerrett, Arthur Kwan and Menashe Kestenbaum are considered to be independent directors since they are independent of Management and free from any material relationship with the Company.

The Board has a majority of independent directors, and takes the following additional steps to facilitate its independence:

1. The Company established the Compensation Committee, which is made up of all independent directors;
2. The Compensation Committee sets Management compensation; and
3. On operational matters of the Company involving the performance of its CEO, the Compensation Committee meets independently.

In the event of a conflict of interest at a meeting of the Board, the conflicted director will in accordance with corporate law and in accordance with his or her fiduciary obligations as a director of the Company, disclose the nature and extent of his or her interest to the meeting and abstain from voting on or against the approval of such participation.

Board Meetings

In addition to board meetings, there were numerous informal meetings between Management and the committees. The independent directors do not hold regularly scheduled meetings at which non-independent directors and members of Management are not present. However, the Board believes that appropriate structures and procedures are in place to ensure that it can function independently of Management and the Board periodically holds independent sessions at the end of Board meetings. Additionally, all committees of the Board are composed entirely of independent directors and hold meetings at which the independent directors discuss matters they deem relevant to the Company. Independent directors are also in frequent informal communication with one another.

The Chairman of the Board is Harkirat (Raj) Grover, a non-independent director and executive officer of the Company. The Chairman focuses on promoting a culture of openness and debate among directors, helping to build and maintain constructive relationships between the independent and non-independent directors. When chairing Board meetings, the Chairman ensures that all views are heard and that the independent directors have an opportunity to challenge Management constructively.

Board Mandate

The Board has not developed a written mandate. The Board is satisfied that roles and responsibilities are delineated in a satisfactory manner, having regard to various considerations such as (but not limited to) the particular expertise of the directors, their respective availability and independence.

Position Descriptions

The Board has not developed written position descriptions for the chair of the Board and the chair of the Board's committees, however the chair of the committees are charged with the responsibility of administering the applicable committee mandates, each of which is can be obtained from the Company, upon request made to #112, 11127 15th Street NE, Calgary, AB T3K 2M4 Attention: Chief Financial Officer, free of charge to any Shareholder.

The CEO has entered into a written employment agreement, which delineates the role and expectations of such position.

Orientation and Continuing Education

New Board members receive an orientation package, which includes reports on operations and results, and public disclosure filings by the Company. Board meetings are sometimes held at the Company's facilities and are combined with tours and presentations by Management and employees to give the Board additional insight into the Company's business. In addition, Management makes itself available for discussion with all Board members.

The Company does not provide formal continuing education to the Board, though it is encouraged for all members. Management does provide regular reporting, both on the Company's operations and opportunities, as well industry trends and opportunities.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Board has adopted a Code of Ethics (the "Code"). The Code is incorporated by reference into, and form an integral part of, this Information Circular. A copy of which is attached to this Information Circular as Schedule "E". The Company will, upon request made to #112, 11127 15th Street NE, Calgary, AB T3K 2M4 Attention: Chief Financial Officer, provide a copy of the Code free of charge to any Shareholder.

In accordance with the Code, the Board monitors ethical conduct of the Company and ensures that it complies with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, such as those of relevant securities commissions and stock exchanges. The Code also specifically addresses additional matters such as conflicts of interest, corporate opportunities, etc. In addition to the Code, the Board has found that the fiduciary duties placed on individual directors by the Company's governing corporate legislation and the common law, as well as the restrictions placed by applicable corporate legislation on the individual director's participation in decision of the Board in which the director has an interest, have been sufficient to ensure that the Board operates independently of Management and in the best interests of the Company.

In accordance with applicable corporate laws, directors are obliged to disclose any potential conflicts in accordance with, and subject to such procedures and remedies, as applicable, under the ABCA.

The Board considers that the policies and procedures outlined above are sufficient to promote a culture of ethical business conduct. If ever in doubt, Management seeks guidance from the Board and/or outside advisors to ensure that such levels of conduct are adhered to.

SCHEDULE “E” - CODE OF ETHICS

1. OVERVIEW

The Corporation is committed to conducting business ethically, honestly and in compliance with applicable laws, regulations and corporate policies. This Code of Ethics (this “Code”) establishes the standards of conduct expected of all Representatives and is intended to promote integrity, accountability, respectful conduct and responsible business practices across all of the Corporation’s operations.

2. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this Code is to communicate the Corporation’s commitment to conducting business with integrity, honesty and respect, in compliance with applicable laws, regulations and policies, and in a manner that preserves the Corporation’s reputation and deters unethical behavior and wrongdoing.

This Code provides an overview of requirements, standards and expectations as guidance in duties and dealings with, and when acting as a representative of, the Corporation. It is not intended to cover every issue that may arise and may be supplemented by other policies that may be adopted by the Corporation from time to time.

3. APPLICATION

This Code applies to all members of the board of directors (the “Board”), officers, employees, consultants, contractors and agents (collectively “Representatives”) of the Corporation and its affiliates and subsidiaries worldwide. Adherence to this Code is a condition of employment with or providing services to the Corporation.

To the extent that this Code conflicts with policies in any subsidiary handbook or policies prepared to govern employees in a specific jurisdiction, the applicable local handbook or policy shall prevail for such employees, subject to applicable law.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

All Representatives are expected to comply with this Code and to exercise good judgment, professionalism and integrity in all activities undertaken on behalf of the Corporation. Failure to comply with this Code, applicable laws or related corporate policies may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or engagement, subject to applicable law and contractual obligations.

5. ETHICS AND INTEGRITY

A. Standards of Professional Conduct

All of the Corporation’s business activities and affairs must be carried out ethically and honestly. The Corporation expects all Representatives to conduct themselves with honesty and integrity and to avoid even the appearance of improper behavior. Anything less is unacceptable and may be treated as a serious breach of duty.

B. Ambassadorship of the Corporation

All Representatives are ambassadors of the Corporation, its subsidiaries, and brands. All Representatives shall represent the Corporation professionally, and act and communicate in a manner which upholds its good reputation and image at all times. This includes the use of social media and other forms of digital or other communications. As Representatives’ actions are seen to reflect those of the Corporation, all actions must reflect the policies and standards of the Corporation.

C. Compliance with Laws, Code and Policies

All Representatives shall comply with the laws, rules and regulations of the jurisdictions where they carry out their duties and all jurisdictions where the Corporation conducts its business activities, including compliance with applicable economic sanctions, trade controls, import/export, anti-money laundering and anti-boycott laws. All Representatives shall comply with this Code and all the Corporation’s policies that apply to them. Where laws conflict with this Code, Representatives must comply with the stricter requirement or seek guidance from the Corporation’s legal counsel.

D. Bribery

In the United States and Canada, and in many other countries, it is contrary to applicable law to provide, offer or accept a kickback or bribe. A kickback or bribe may be defined as any money, fee, commission, credit, gift, gratuity, loan, reward, advantage, benefit, thing of value or compensation of any kind that is provided, directly or indirectly, and that has as one of its purposes, the improper obtaining or rewarding of favorable treatment in a business transaction. The Corporation maintains a strict prohibition on offering, promising, authorizing, or receiving anything of value, including payments, gifts, or other gratuities, to improperly influence business outcomes or practices, including directly or indirectly through family members, agents, or intermediaries. If such an offer is received, Representatives should seek guidance from the SVP Legal & Compliance of the Corporation.

E. Vendors, Suppliers, Customers and other Third Parties

The Corporation is committed to treating all of its current or prospective vendors, suppliers, customers, agents, representatives, business partners, promoters, job candidates, and other third parties, (“Third Parties”) fairly, honestly and courteously. Representatives are to avoid unfair tactics and favoritism, and never take unfair advantage of any Third Party through manipulation, concealment, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair practice. Legally, the Corporation may be held liable for the actions of any Third Party acting on the Corporation’s behalf as if the Corporation had performed such actions. All agreements with Third Parties must be in writing and reviewed and approved in accordance with applicable policies, and must specify the goods and services to be provided and the fees to be paid. Such agreements must be in line with reasonable competitive and market practices, the principles established in this Code and relevant corporate policies. Throughout the business relationship, Representatives must exercise reasonable oversight of such Third Parties to help prevent misconduct.

F. Fair Competition

Antitrust laws are designed to protect competition in the United States and Canada. Generally speaking, the following types of topics, and any others that may limit competition, should never be discussed with a competitor (including a potential or prospective competitor): prices, pricing policy, discounts or rebates (including competitive bidding practices); costs, profits, or profit margins; terms or conditions of sale, including credit terms and return policies; division of markets, market territories, customers or sales territories; market share of any products; marketing, advertising or promotional plans; controlling, preventing or reducing the supply of any product; pricing or promotional practices of wholesalers, dealers, distributors or customers; classifying, rejecting, terminating or allocating customers; or any other non-public and/or competitively sensitive information about the Corporation or a competitor. Each Representative is responsible for making sure that their actions on behalf of the Corporation do not in any way violate or appear to violate antitrust laws or regulations. When in doubt, seek assistance from your relevant executive officer.

G. Fair Dealing

All business dealings undertaken on behalf of the Corporation, including with its security holders, customers, suppliers, competitors and employees, must be conducted in a manner that preserves the Corporation’s integrity and reputation. The Corporation seeks to avoid misrepresentations of material facts, manipulation of, concealment of, or abuse of Confidential Information, or any other illegal or unfair practices in all activities undertaken by or on behalf of the Corporation.

H. Conflicts of Interest

Representatives must comply with the Corporation’s Personal Relationships and Conflict of Interest Policy. Generally, while the Corporation respects the privacy of its Representatives in the conduct of their personal affairs, it insists that they fully discharge their duties of fidelity to the Corporation. Representatives should avoid any activity in which their personal interests may come into conflict or may appear to conflict with the interests of the Corporation in its relations with Third Parties. A conflict of interest may arise when a Representative is in a situation, or is likely to be put in a situation where the Representative has the opportunity of making a decision on behalf of the Corporation that may benefit the Representative or their friends, relatives or business associates contrary to the best interests of the Corporation. Should any Representative find themselves in a potential conflict of interest situation, they must promptly make disclosure to their relevant executive officer and abide by the executive officer’s decision. Two factors that will be considered when determining whether a conflict of interest exists are: (1) whether the Representative is or could be in a position to influence the Corporation’s relationship with a Third Party; and (2) whether the Representative’s judgment could be affected, or could appear to be affected, as it relates to the Third Party because of the significance of the Representative’s personal interest.

It is not possible to anticipate every conflict of interest situation a Representative may encounter. Without limiting the general scope of this policy, the following relationships and courses of conduct will be considered to involve a conflict of interest where disclosure must be promptly made to their relevant executive officer unless in special circumstances they are specifically approved and waived by the Corporation:

- A Representative, friend, relative or business associate has a material interest in, or are an officer, director, or are otherwise involved in an entity which does or is proposing to do business with the Corporation, or which competes or is likely to compete with the Corporation.

- During the course of their employment, or as a direct result of their employment, a Representative becomes aware of business opportunities where it is reasonably expected the Corporation may be interested in pursuing such opportunities and the Representative uses this information for their own benefit, or for the benefit of a friend, relative, or business associate instead of for the benefit of the Corporation.

In addition, a Representative should not use Corporation assets, including all data, information (confidential or otherwise), records, products, material, facilities, inventory, “know-how”, trade secrets, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property, and equipment, and Confidential Information (the “Corporation’s Assets”) for their own personal benefit (or the benefit of friends, relatives or business associates) or for non-Corporation activities, unless the Corporation has given its prior consent. Information gained through the course of a Representative’s employment, or from the engagement of their services, includes Corporation business ventures or activities, or proposed business ventures or activities.

I. Corporate Opportunities

Representatives are prohibited from taking for themselves personally opportunities that arise through the use of corporate property, information or position and from using the Corporation property, information or position for personal gain. Representatives are also prohibited from competing with the Corporation, directly or indirectly, and owe a duty to the Corporation to advance the legitimate interests of the Corporation when the opportunity arises.

J. Gifts and Entertainment

Representatives shall not accept gift, favour, entertainment, special accommodation or other items of value, to or from any Third Parties, except in strict compliance with the Corporation’s Employee Policy on Gifts and Personal Benefits, this Code, and with applicable law.

K. Charitable and Political Activities

The Corporation values the culture of giving, of social engagement and of caring for others. The Corporation wants to foster good relations within the communities where it operates. Representatives are encouraged to participate in local activities that address the needs of the communities in which they live and work and to participate as a private citizen in government and the political process, using your own money and your own time. It should always be clear to outside observers that these are your personal actions and not actions taken on behalf of the Corporation. Representatives must ensure involvement in charitable or political activities is not prohibited by other Corporation policies or suggestive of anything improper, and do not use, without specific written authorization, any Corporation funds or resources to help or promote any charitable cause or political candidate or party.

6. SAFE, RESPECTFUL AND INCLUSIVE WORKPLACE

A. No Discrimination and Harassment

No discrimination or harassment is tolerated, and providing a collegial working environment in which all individuals are treated with dignity and respect is mandatory. Every individual has the right to work in a professional atmosphere which promotes equal opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices. Any discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to, the basis of age, color, creed, disability, ethnic origin, gender, marital status, national origin, political belief, race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or any other characteristics protected by law, is strictly prohibited.

B. Workplace Safety

Representatives must comply with the Corporation’s Workplace Occupational Health and Safety Policy. The Corporation is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment that complies with all relevant laws and regulations. Workplace violence is not tolerated. Any misuse of alcohol or legal drugs (prescribed or non-prescribed), or the use of any illegal drugs, may jeopardize job safety and/or performance, and is prohibited in the workplace. No Representative shall enter the workplace under the influence of alcohol or such drugs that may impair safety and/or performance.

7. SAFEGUARDING THE CORPORATION'S ASSETS AND INFORMATION

A. Protection and Proper Use of the Corporation's Assets

All Representatives shall deal with the Corporation's Assets, with integrity and with due regard to the interests of the Corporation. The Corporation must maintain the accuracy, confidentiality, privacy and security of these types of information in order to comply with all applicable privacy laws. Representatives must comply with applicable privacy and data protection laws, and the Corporation's privacy and cybersecurity policies when handling personal information. Similarly, Representatives must not disclose proprietary, confidential, or otherwise sensitive information gained through the course of their employment, or from the engagement of their services, that has been entrusted to the Corporation by others, including information about the Corporation's business, assets, opportunities, suppliers and competitors ("Confidential Information"). The Corporation's Assets may not be used for personal gain or benefit. In addition, all Representatives must act in a manner to protect the Corporation's Assets from loss, damage, misuse, theft, misappropriation. The Corporation expects its Representatives to use internet access for business-related purposes (i.e., to communicate with customers and suppliers, to research relevant topics and to obtain useful business information). All existing policies apply to conduct on the internet, particularly (but not exclusively) those policies dealing with intellectual property protection, privacy, misuse of the Corporation's resources, sexual harassment, information and data security and confidentiality. All Representatives must take special care to maintain clarity, consistency and integrity of the Corporation's corporate image and standing.

B. Confidentiality of Information

It is the Corporation's policy to ensure that its proprietary and Confidential Information is adequately safeguarded. All Representatives are responsible for protecting Confidential Information from unauthorized intentional or inadvertent disclosure.

C. Communications

Representatives should take care to ensure that all business records and communications (including email, texts, and instant messages) are clear and accurate. Please remember that business communications may be shared or become public through litigation, government investigation, or publication in the media. Potential risks from inaccurate or misleading statements include claims of false advertising, misrepresentation, breach of contract, securities fraud, unfair disclosure, and competition violations. Representatives may not give an endorsement or other statement on behalf of the Corporation or personal endorsement that identifies your affiliation with the Corporation, except when approved by their relevant executive officer. In addition, Representatives may not discuss the Corporation's business, including financial condition, business or financial performance, products, or business prospects with external parties, including but not limited to financial analysts, actual or potential investors without the prior approval of their relevant executive officer. All requests for a representative of the Corporation to participate in conferences (including speaking on a panel or attending a dinner or any event that targets the financial community) must be referred to their relevant executive officer for approval. If any such analysts or investors contact you, please refer such inquiries to the President.

D. Inside Information and Insider Trading Laws

Representatives must adhere to the Corporation's Insider Trading Policy and applicable insider trading laws. Generally, Representatives are prohibited from buying or selling shares of the Corporation if they are aware of material non-public information about the Corporation; information that, if made public, would likely influence a reasonable investor's decision to buy, sell, or hold the Corporation's shares, or, if disclosed to the public, would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of the shares, regardless of if the information is positive or negative ("MNPI"). Trading in shares while in possession of MNPI is a violation of insider trading laws. Possible examples include financial information such as consolidated sales numbers, financial projections or the Corporation's financial performance, the hiring or departure of key personnel, or significant inventory issues. Representatives must wait to trade in the Corporation's shares until after MNPI has been widely released to the public, giving the public markets adequate time to digest the information. Only certain individuals who are authorized may publicly disclose MNPI. Improper disclosure of MNPI, even accidentally, to other people, including immediate family members or friends, or recommending the purchase or sale of the Corporation's shares to others while aware of MNPI, is known as "tipping" and is illegal. A person who receives the information (i.e., is "tipped") and then trades in the Corporation's shares or informs others of that information is also in violation of insider trading laws.

E. Financial Integrity and Responsibility

Representatives are expected to act responsibly and exercise sound judgment with respect to matters involving Corporation finances. Representatives must adhere to all applicable accepted accounting standards and practices, keep accurate, complete and timely records, submit accurate and complete reports as required, comply with the Corporation's system of internal controls, and sign only those documents you believe to be correct and complete. The Corporation will not (i) establish any undisclosed or unrecorded funds or assets for any purpose, (ii) enter into side agreements or other informal arrangements, either written or oral or (iii) take any actions or fail to take any actions that would cause its financial records or financial disclosure to fail to comply with generally accepted accounting principles and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. All Representatives must cooperate fully and completely with the Corporation's accounting and audit teams, as well as the Corporation's independent public accountants and counsel, providing them with complete and accurate information and assistance. Representatives are prohibited from coercing, manipulating, misleading or improperly influencing the Corporation's internal or external auditors at any time. Representatives are prohibited from knowingly making, or causing or encouraging any other person from making, in any of the Corporation's public disclosure, any false or misleading statements or any omissions of any information necessary to make the disclosure complete and accurate in all material respects. If you suspect or observe any irregularities relating to financial integrity and responsibility, immediately report them to their relevant executive officer or the nominating and corporate governance committee of the Corporation (the "Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee").

F. Compliance

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing and evaluating this Code at least annually and will recommend any necessary or appropriate changes to the Board for consideration.

G. Reporting Violations of this Code

All Representatives shall adhere to the Corporation's commitment to conduct its business and affairs in a lawful and ethical manner. Any breach or suspected breach of law, regulation, this Code or any of the Corporation's corporate policies should be reported through appropriate channels, including to human resources, or through the formal reporting mechanism pursuant to the Corporation's Whistleblower Policy. In situations where there may be a conflict of interest, or where the individual has concerns regarding confidentiality, reports should be made in accordance with the Corporation's Whistleblower Policy. All Representatives are encouraged to review the Corporation's Whistleblower Policy, or talk to their relevant executive officer, human resources, or the management team when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation.

H. Consequences of Violation of this Code

Representatives may be required to certify their understanding of and compliance with this Code from time to time as applicable. Failure to comply may result in severe consequences, which could include internal disciplinary action or termination of employment or consulting arrangements, subject to compliance with applicable law and contractual obligations. Violation of this Code may also violate certain applicable laws. If it appears a Representative may have violated such laws, the Corporation may refer the matter to the appropriate authorities, which could lead to legal proceedings, penalties, fines or imprisonment.

I. Waiver of this Code

Waivers or exceptions may be granted only in advance and under exceptional circumstances by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Any waiver of this Code with respect to a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may be granted only by the audit committee of the Corporation. Any waiver with respect to a director or executive officer of the Corporation may be granted only by the Board. Any such waiver shall be disclosed to the extent and in the manner required by applicable laws or stock exchange rules.

This Code was approved by the Board on June 26, 2026.
