1. Purpose

ArcelorMittal Group¹ ("ArcelorMittal", "we", "our", or "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your Personal Data. This Data Protection Policy (the "Policy") explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard Personal Data of all Data Subjects when they interact with us, or use our services. Please take the time to read this Policy carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your Personal Data and how we will treat it.

2. Scope

This Policy applies to all Data Subjects of ArcelorMittal and to any third party acting on our behalf and to all Processing of Personal Data by us.

This Policy applies to:

- (i) any and all Personal Data processed by or on behalf of an ArcelorMittal entity or its subsidiaries, including (but not limited to) employees, customers, contractors, local stakeholders, job candidates, external consultants, business partners and suppliers; and
- (ii) any and all Personal Data processed by or on behalf of us, and further transferred or made available outside of the European Union ("EU")/ European Economic Area ("EEA"), including employees, customers, job candidates, contractors, local stakeholders, external consultants, business partners and suppliers.

The Controller of your Personal Data (as defined below) will be the ArcelorMittal entity with which you interact with. This Policy is in line with the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016/679 EU ("GDPR"), as well as any applicable national data protection provisions (collectively with the GDPR, the "Data Protection Laws"), and is based on ArcelorMittal's Binding corporate rules.

3. Definitions

"Controller" means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of Personal Data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or EU member state law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or EU member state law;

"Processor" means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes Personal Data on behalf of the Controller;

"Binding corporate rules" are Personal Data protection policies which are adhered to by a Controller or processor established in the territory of a Member State for transfers or a set of transfers of Personal Data to a Controller or processor in one or more third countries within a group of undertakings, or group of enterprises engaged in a joint economic activity.

"Data Subject" means any natural person whose Personal Data are processed in the context of a process falling in the scope of this Policy.

"Consent" means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the Data Subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the Processing of Personal Data.

"Personal Data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. An identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identification number or to one or more factors specific to his physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identity.

"Processing" of Personal Data means any operation or set of operations which is performed upon Personal Data, whether or not by automatic means, such as collection, recording, organization, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, blocking, erasure or destruction.

"Special Categories of Personal Data" or "Special Data" means Personal Data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade-union membership, genetic and biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person and data concerning health or sex life and sexual orientation.

"Subsidiary(ies)" means any company or legal entity fully consolidated and controlled by an ArcelorMittal entity. The term "control" means the possession, direct or indirect, through one or more intermediaries of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a company or legal entity, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

¹ This present data privacy policy is applicable to all ArcelorMittal subsidiaries but might be completed by further requirements as per the local privacy law(s) as applicable. For more information, please visit the website of the concerned subsidiary(ies) or write us at: dataprotection@arcelormittal.com. You can also use the electronic form available in our corporate website. <https://corporate.arcelormittal.com/>

4. Business benefits

The Processing of Personal Data is regulated in many of the countries where we are present and do business.

We recognize that Personal Data must be treated with caution, therefore we adopt practical and legal measures to protect Personal Data handled under our responsibility.

5. Data Protection at ArcelorMittal

The Board of Directors and management of ArcelorMittal are committed to comply with all relevant Data Protection Laws, and to protecting the rights and freedoms of individuals whose Personal Data ArcelorMittal processes. To that end, ArcelorMittal has developed and implemented a documented Privacy management framework for ArcelorMittal which will be maintained, continuously improved and supported with further specific privacy and data protection policies and procedures.

Our objectives are to ensure adequate Personal Data protection and fair Processing to:

- (i) meet our own requirements for the management of Personal Data;
- (ii) support organizational objectives and obligations;

10. Who we share your data with?

We may share your Personal Data with the following types of recipients (the "Recipients"):

Our Subsidiaries: Sharing Personal Data with subsidiaries within ArcelorMittal may be necessary for legitimate purposes such as for the performance of a contract with the Data Subject (e.g., customers, employees, or service users) for our legitimate interest, to comply with legal obligations, to perform internal administrative functions such as human resources management, payroll, or financial processing, to ensure consistent data management and improve the security of Personal Data across the group. In addition, Subsidiaries in different countries within a group often share certain services and resources, such as IT infrastructure, customer support, marketing, and finance functions. For your information, at ArcelorMittal, we have Binding corporate rules applicable to us and our Subsidiaries.

Service providers: Companies who provide services on our behalf, such as payment processors, website hosting, IT support, legal counsels, auditors, and analytics providers.

Business partners: For example, partners for joint marketing initiatives, or where you've opted into third-party offers.

Legal authorities: Where we are required by law, regulation, or legal process to disclose information, we may share your data with governmental, judicial, prosecution or regulatory bodies.

Relevant third parties: Any third party that acquires, or is interested in acquiring or securitizing, all or part of the Controller's assets or shares, or that succeeds to it in carrying on all or a part of its businesses, or services provided to it, whether by merger, acquisition, financing, reorganization or otherwise.

These sharing are always done in a lawful, transparent, and accountable manner.

The Recipients may, under their own responsibility, disclose the Personal Data to their agents and/or delegates (the "Sub-Recipients"), which shall process the Personal Data for the sole purposes of assisting the Recipients in providing their services to us and/or assisting the Recipients in fulfilling their own legal obligations.

11. How long we keep your Personal Data

We retain your Personal Data for the duration of the contract with the relevant ArcelorMittal entity and thereafter for a period of ten (10) years, unless longer or shorter statutory limitation periods apply. In any case, where no contract exists, we will retain your Personal Data as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Policy, and in accordance with our data retention policy. When your Personal Data is no longer needed, we will securely delete or anonymize it.

12. Your data protection rights

Under the conditions and limitations foreseen by the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your Personal Data:

Right of access: You have the right to obtain confirmation as to whether your Personal Data are processed by ArcelorMittal or not and to access such data, as well as request a copy of the Personal Data we hold about you.

Right to rectification: You can request that we correct any inaccurate or incomplete Personal Data.

Right to erasure: You have the right to request that we delete your Personal Data, subject to certain conditions.

Right to restriction of Processing: You can request that we restrict the Processing of your Personal Data in certain circumstances.

Right to object: You can object to the Processing of your Personal Data based on the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or our legitimate interests or for direct marketing purposes.

Right to data portability: You have the right to request that we transfer your Personal Data to another organization, or directly to you, in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.

Right to withdraw your consent: You have the right to withdraw your consent easily and at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not however affect the lawfulness of Processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at dataprotection@arcelormittal.com or go to the following webpage Privacy Policy | ArcelorMittal where a request form is made available to everyone.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission Nationale pour la Protection des Données (the "CNPD") at the following address: 15, Boulevard du Jazz, L-4370 Belvaux, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg; or with any competent data protection supervisory authority of your state of residence.

13. Security of Personal Data

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your Personal Data from unauthorized access, use, alteration, and disclosure. These measures include encryption, secure servers, and access controls.

14. International transfers

If we transfer your Personal Data to Recipients located in countries outside the EU/EEA which do not offer an adequate level for the protection of Personal Data, we ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place, such as Binding corporate rules or the use of Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission, as well as, if necessary, supplementary measures to protect your data. Where the Recipients are located in a country outside the EEA which benefits from an adequacy decision of the European Commission, the Personal Data will be transferred to the Recipients upon such adequacy decision.

In this respect, the Data Subjects have a right to request copies of the relevant document for enabling the Personal Data transfer(s) towards such countries by writing to the Controller at the address referred to in the Section 16 below ("Contact Us").

15. Changes to this Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices and/or legal obligations. An up-to-date version will be made available on our website.

In case of substantial updates to the present Privacy Notice, you will be notified through our website at <https://corporate.arcelormittal.com> and/or the employee's intranet] or other means of communication.
