

DRIVING AWAY CRIME:

EXPLORING INCIDENTS IN THE AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY

Though it's a multi-billion dollar industry, the automotive industry is not immune to costly crimes and damaging behaviors from on-lookers, trespassers, and thieves.

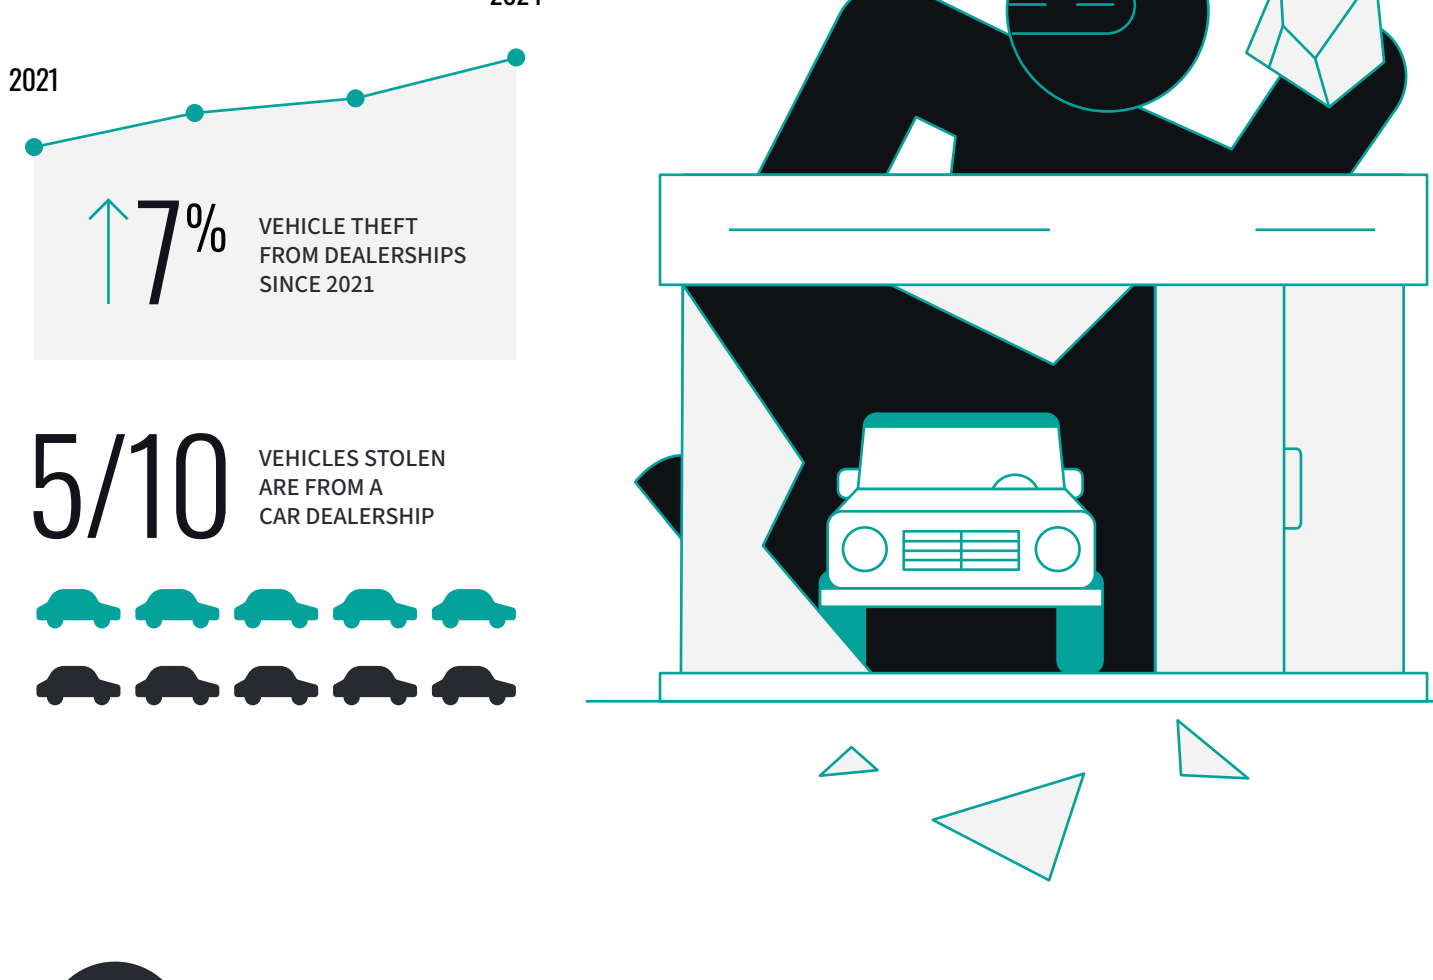

AUTOMOTIVE MARKET AND CAR THEFT

The automotive industry is an easy, obvious target of theft and vandalism due to its high value and volume in every town and city in America.

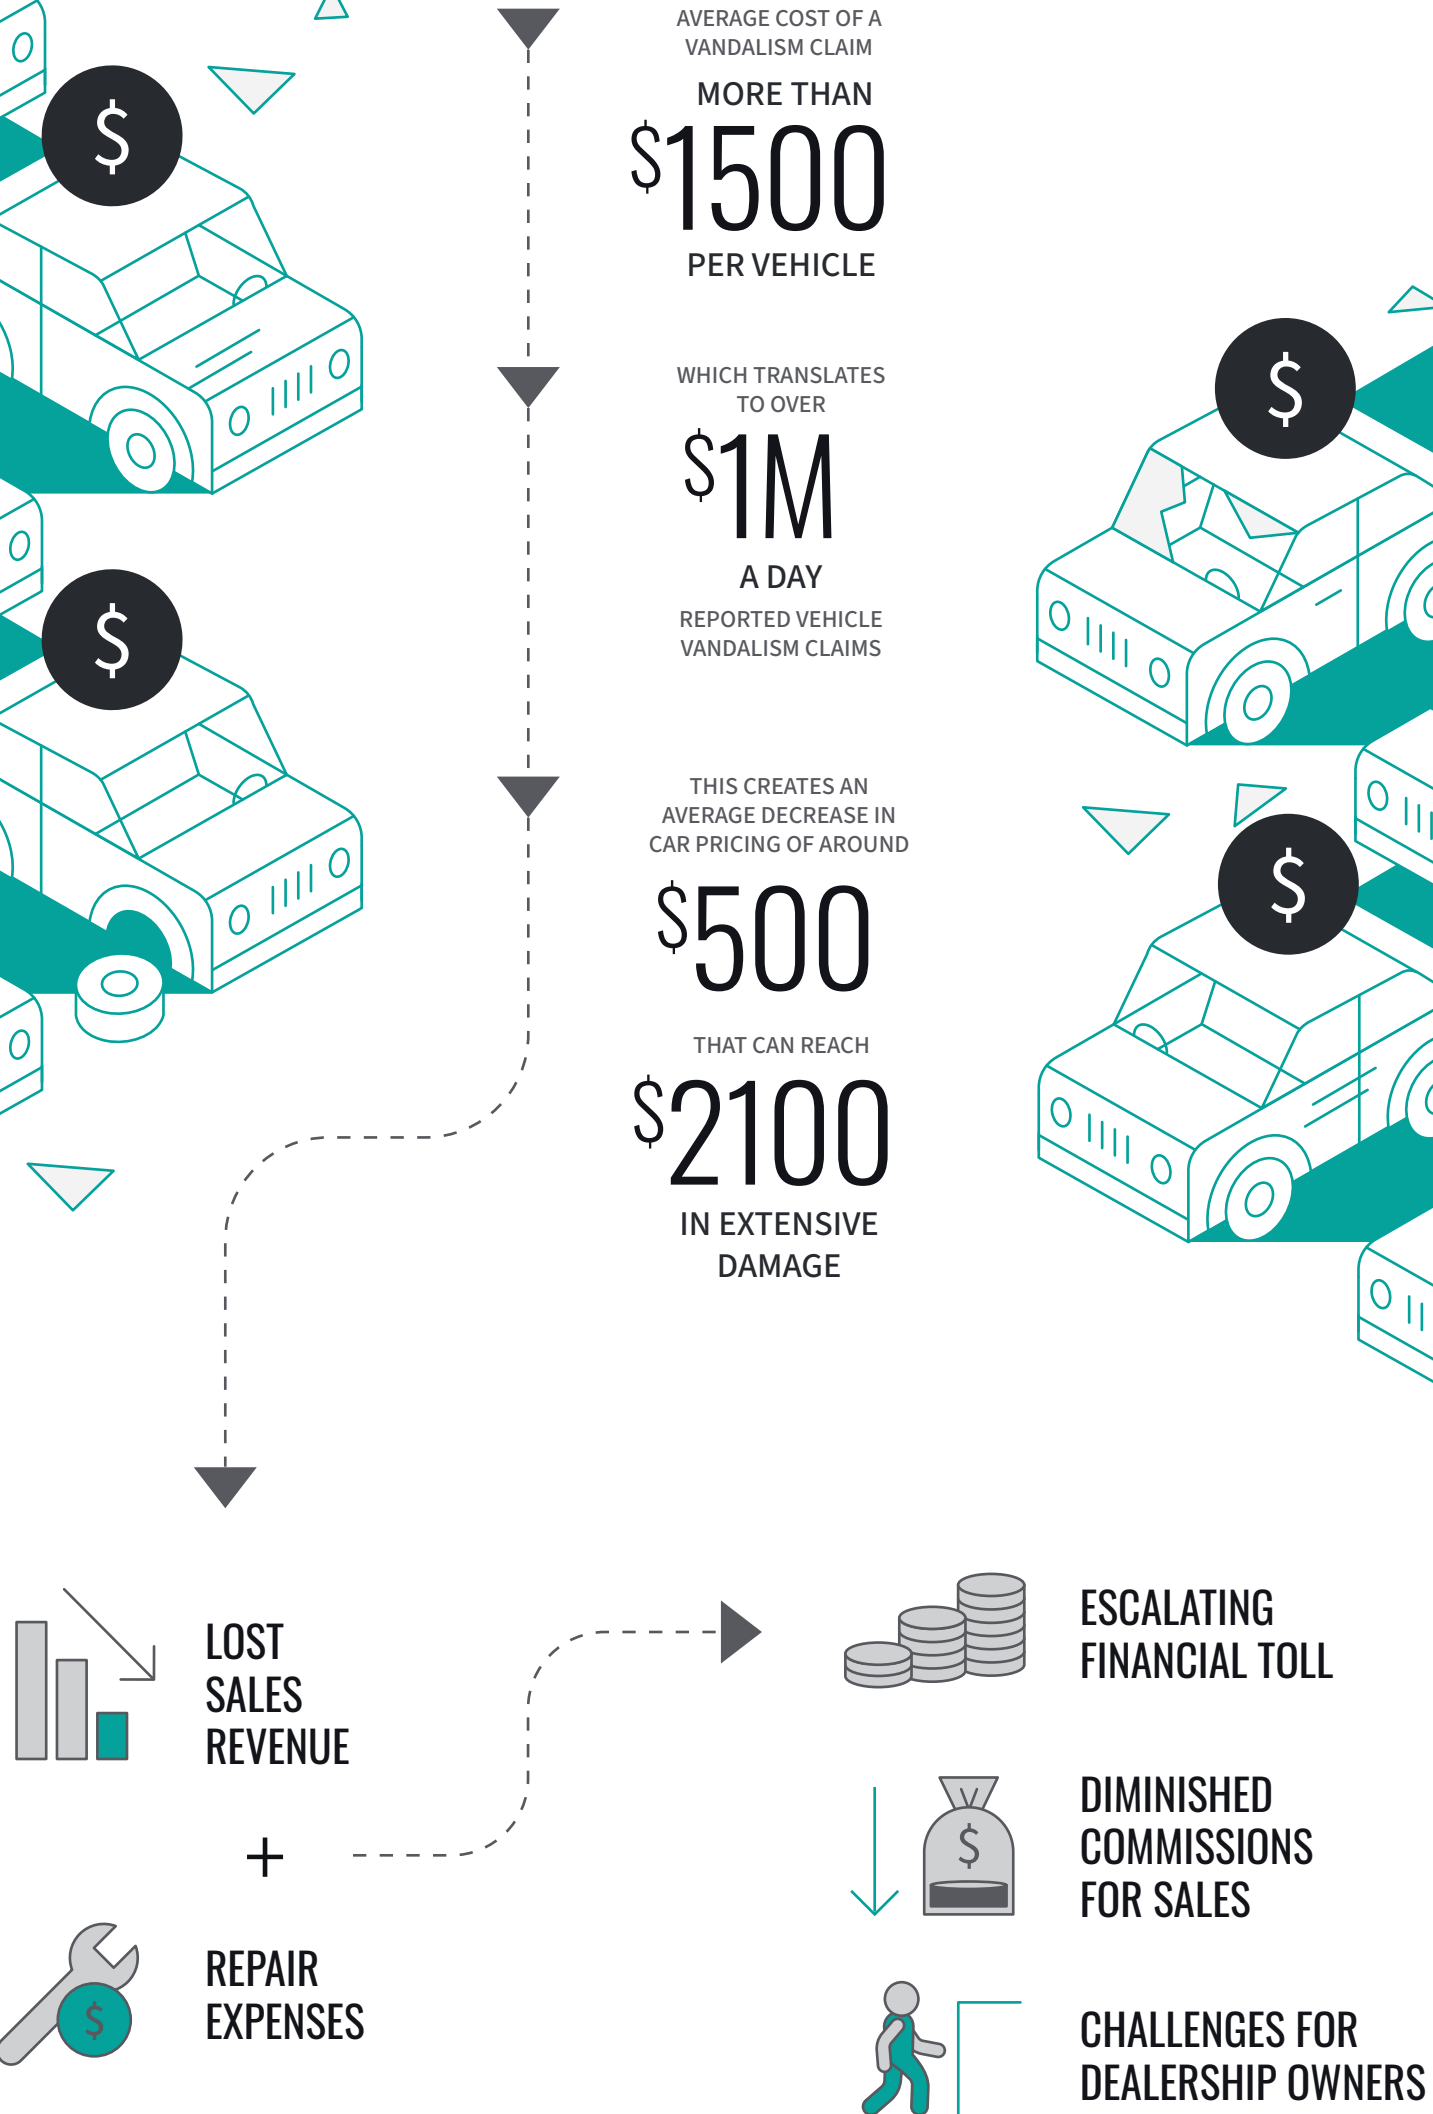

CRIME AT CAR DEALERSHIPS

Vehicle theft from car dealerships is especially problematic for business owners and employees, and it's increasing year after year.

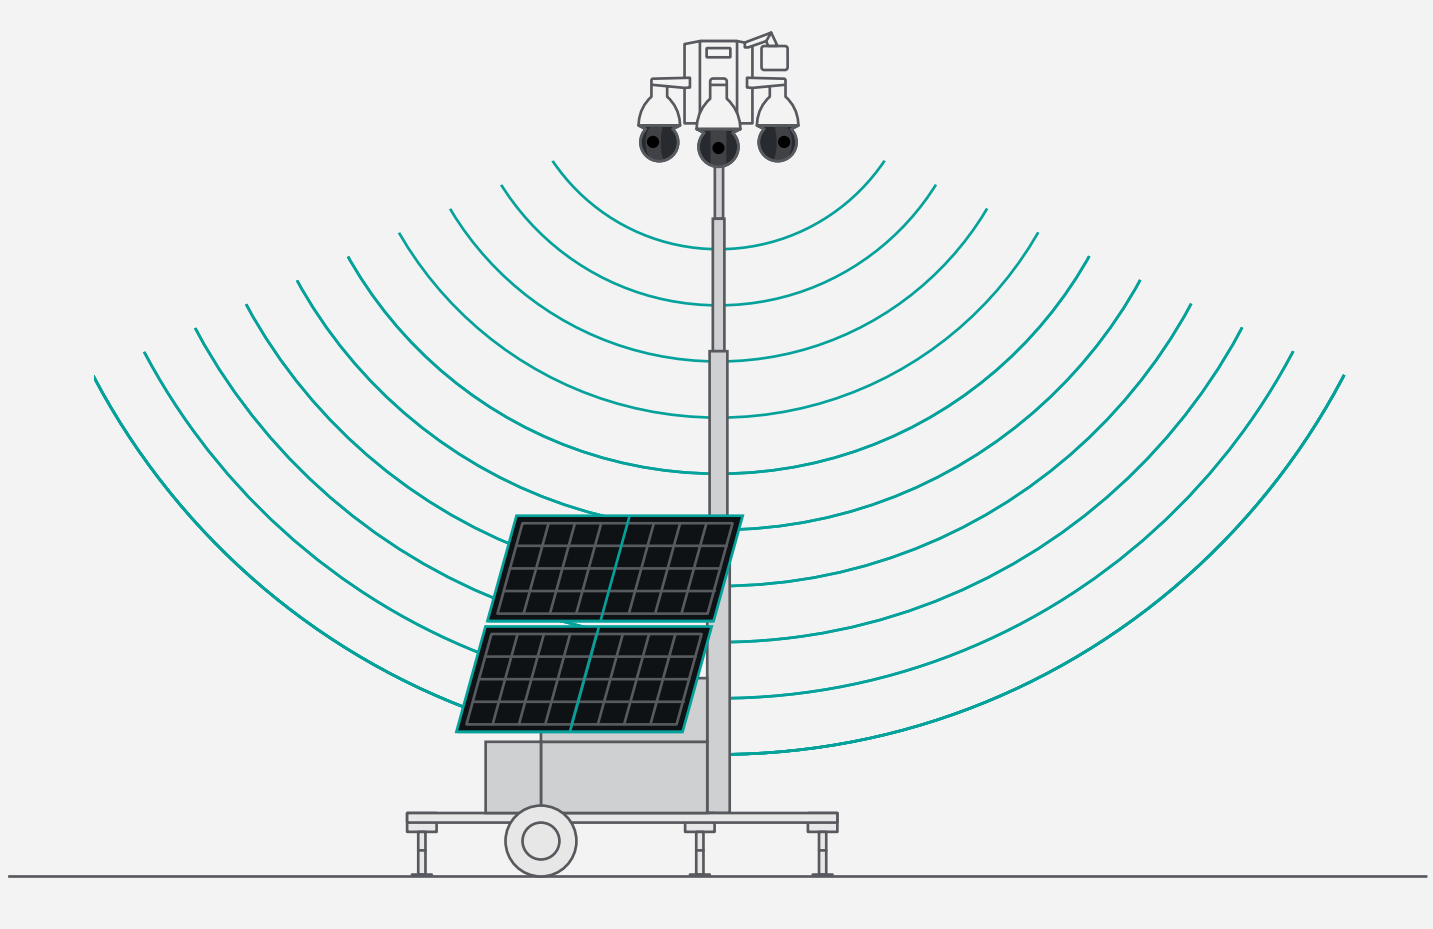

THE COST OF CRIME AT CAR DEALERSHIPS

More than just being a headache for owners of car dealerships, the cost of theft and vandalism at car dealerships is exponential.

LVT helps the automotive industry combat these losses and increase safety and security for their employees and customers. We've partnered with automotive dealers across the country.
