

Encountering God: A Day for Singles

hosted by Quiet Waters

Date: Tuesday 29th September 2026, 9:30 - 4pm

Leader: Sheila Jacobs

Location: Quiet Waters Christian House, Flixton Road, Bungay NR35 1PD

What to expect: Looking at singleness from a different perspective... come prepared to be challenged, encouraged and equipped! Thinking about seasons, how life changes and evolves, and how we can find God in that.

A time for singles to encounter God and to see that their identity is not dependent on their marital status; that each one is precious in God's sight; looking to Him, not to ourselves. Knowing that He has good plans for us, but first and foremost we need to seek Him and put Him first.

- Thinking about the special nature and high calling of singleness, even for a season: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35.
- Thinking about how we define ourselves: by relationships with others (especially romantic) or by our relationship with Jesus? Encouraging thought around that.
- Acceptance of our current season, and the joy to be found within it. What might God be doing in us at this time? Encouraging exploration of this/going deeper with God.

Cost: £65.00 to include refreshments and a two-course home made lunch

To book: contact the QW office at mail@quietwaters.org.uk or 01986 893201
