The Partner shall not amend, modify or alter in any way, with minor amendment included any of the Company's marketing materials (including but not limited to the text, information and documentation), intellectual property, brands and/or trademarks without prior informing the Company on the proposed amendment or use and receiving the company's consent to proceed.
- 6.3.16. The Partner shall not be permitted to market the Company on any Internet website on which the Company promotes the Trading Platform and/or in any other manner which results in the Partner competing with the Company in relation to the promotion of the Trading Platform. In addition, the Partner shall not carry out search engine marketing of the Trading Platform using the word "Moonance LLC” or any other name confusingly similar to “Moonance” or “Bullwaves” and “Bullwaves Global”. In the event that the Partner is in breach of the foregoing provisions, the Company reserves the right to immediately terminate the Agreement pursuant to the terms specified in section 11 below.

- 6.3.17. The Company has the right to monitor the effectiveness of the Partner’s marketing activities such as the number of Clients (also referred to as “traffic”) guided to the Company and the conversion rates from a Client lead to becoming a Client who deposits funds into their account. The monitoring of Partner’s performance should identify what “Ad serving technology” the Partner is using along with any third-party technologies (this may include programmatic trading desks), information on Cookie tracking and the use of any third-party software. The methods used to monitor the Partner’s performance will be at the Company’s sole discretion. The performance findings will be presented in a Partner “Marketing Report”.
- 6.3.18. The Partner will ensure that all of its Associates and any Persons Connected to it will keep detailed accounts and records of all Minimum Marketing Activities for at least five years or such period as may be required by law or, if longer, until any dispute regarding such records has been fully resolved. The Company or its authorised representatives will, upon giving two (2) business days’ notice in writing, have the right to inspect such accounts and records for the purposes of determining the accuracy of the information supplied by the Partner. The Company may also make and take away copies of such accounts and records. This right of inspection will remain in effect for a period of one year following the date of termination of this agreement. The Company will pay the fees and expenses of any audit carried out unless the audit reflects a discrepancy of more than five (5%) percent of the Minimum Marketing Activities reported to the Company in the Partner Report. In such an event, the Partner will pay the fees and expenses incurred by the Company in respect of such an audit.
- 6.3.19. In the event that the Partner makes use of any Marketing Material that has not been approved by the Company, the Company shall have the right, in addition to any other right or remedy available to it under this Agreement or applicable law, to render the Tracking URLs assigned to such Partner inoperative, and immediately block Partner’s access to the Partner Program and deny any Partner Fee, with no compensation to the Partner. The Partner hereby irrevocably waives any claim or demand against the Company, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees or against the Company’s website(s) in respect of such action taken by Company.

6.4. PARTNER TRACKING URL

- 6.4.1. The Tracking URL, including Trackers IDs or any other Trackers provided by the Company to the Partner, shall be used only by the Partner for the performance of this Agreement.

6.4.2. The Partner shall not transfer, assign, sell his/her Tracking URL to any Third Party, without prior written consent of the Company. Any violation of this provision, the Company reserves the right to apply the necessary measures, including warnings, termination or retain commission accordingly to clause 6.6 below.

6.5. REPUTATION & GOOD FAITH

6.5.1. The Partner shall at all the time maintain ethical practices, high standard of business and conduct its business in such manner so as to reflect favorably the Company.

6.5.2. The Partner shall at all the time protect the reputation of the Company, including but not limited to its employees, directors, and associates. The Partner shall not do any act that would or might damage the standing reputation of the Company.

6.5.3. The Partner shall immediately notify the Company verbally and in writing upon receipt of any prospective clients or client's complaint or threatened action realised against the Company, including its employees, directors, and its associates in connection with any alleged errors and/ or corrections and/or any other matters related to the Company, its services and products.

6.5.4. The Partner shall immediately notify the Company orally and in writing of any claims raised By any regulatory authority or national consumer body or any relevant authority body.

6.5.5. The Partner shall, throughout the duration of the Agreement and after, act in good faith at all times and shall not make any false and/or misleading representation or statements with respect to the Company and/or the Partner Program and/or the Company's products and services and/or not engage in any other practices which may affect adversely the image, credibility or the reputation of the Company and its services.

6.6. MEASURES

6.6.1 If the Company has reasonable suspicion that the Partner has committed an act in violation of any of the General Partner Terms & Conditions and/or of non-compliance with the provisions herein and/or act in breach of applicable laws and regulations, the Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion including but not limited to:

 - c. Offset from the Partner's Remuneration any cost resulting from fraudulent claims or charge backs or any other equivalent action existing or future, originating from the Partner's referred clients, until the Company's loss is fully repaid. The Company shall make reasonable effort during the account opening process to verify the authenticity of new accounts and subsequently their payments to the Company.
 - d. Withhold the payment if the Company reasonably believes that by not doing so, it will lead to a breach to the Laws and/ or to the Company's statutory regulations.
 - e. Not pay rebates to the Partner for trades where the Partner's Referred Clients have traded in and out of a position, either directly or indirectly through hedging, in less than 5 (Five) minutes, or accordingly to the Client's Agreement available on the Company's website.

- f. Cancel the relevant proportion of the Partner's remuneration in the case of fraud or termination with cancellation of profit of the business relationship with the Partner's referred clients due to breach to the Client's Agreement of the Company.
- g. Cancel any outstanding Partner's commission and terminate this Agreement if the Company detects or has reasonable suspicion that the Partner introduces abusive clients or otherwise abuses the Company, its services or its systems.
- h. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration , if the Company detects or has reasonable suspicion that the Partner introduces abusive clients or otherwise abuses the Company and its remuneration services.
- i. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration, if the Company has reason to suspect that the Partner's activity is not in compliance with any applicable laws or regulations regarding digital advertising.
- j. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration, if the Partner has failed to complete any form as may be required by the Company or has entered misleading or incorrect information in a form provided by the Partner to the Company.
- k. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration, if the Partner has failed to provide any document as may be demanded by the Company; and/or the Company has been notified by any third party of the alleged infringement of property or rights (e.g. intellectual property rights) by the Partner or by the Partner's activity.
- l. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration if the Client traded only the minimum trades/lots needed for the Partner to qualify under the CPA, and then the net deposits fell below the Net Deposit Qualifier Level within 1 (one) week.
- m. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration if the Client's first-time deposit triggers compensation under the CPA, but the Client makes a partial withdrawal and only trades on the remaining amount which would have been subject to a lower CPA. In such instances, the Partner will be compensated in accordance with the lower CPA amount.
- n. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration if the Client has created a duplicate profile.
- o. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration if the Client has any chargebacks to their Account.
- p. Reduce, deduct, deny or withhold from the Partner's remuneration if the Company has a reasonable basis to believe that the Client has provided fraudulent information or documentation in relation to their Account.

11. Duration

11.1. This Agreement shall come into force from the day the applicant Partner has accepted online this Agreement at the Online Partner Account Opening Procedure stage and shall continue in force for an indefinite period of time until terminated by either party as per clause 11.

The expressions "data controller", "processing", "personal data", "data processor", "data subject" and "subject access request" shall bear their respective meanings given in the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and any other grammatical forms of those expressions shall be interpreted accordingly.

13.2.2. The Partner shall warrant the Company that (s)he has made the appropriate notifications and have complied with the notification provisions under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in respect of the Partner's obligations under this Agreement and that the performance under this Agreement shall not breach or contravene such notification, nor cause the Company to breach its requirements under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

13.2.3. The partner's personal Data

- a. The Company shall hold personal data about the Partner, or any person employed by the Partner and relating to the Partner's dealings with the Company on the Company's database for the purpose of this Agreement, paying the Partner's commission, maintaining the business relationship and for regulatory issues.
- b. The Company shall use the Partner's personal data to manage the ongoing relationship, to provide information and to administer the Partner's account. The Company may carry out credit and / or reference checks on the Partner or any other director, partner or employee of the Partner. By accepting a relationship with the Company, the Partner and any other director, partner or employee of the Partner agrees to these checks taking place throughout the duration of the relationship where the Company, in our sole opinion, feels it is necessary to do so.
- c. The Company shall keep the Partner's personal data (and the Partner's employees' personal data) for a period as required by the local legislation(s). The Company may also share the Partner's personal data (and the Partner's employees' personal data) with our service providers, agents and with third parties such as auditors, other financial institutions and legal and regulatory bodies.
- d. The Company may contact the Partner by mail, phone, email or other electronic messaging with further offers, promotions and information about products and services which may be of interest to the Partner.
- e. To provide the services under this Agreement, it may be necessary to transfer the Partner's personal data and/ or the Partner's employees' personal data to countries that provide a different level of data protection. In such circumstances, the Company shall ensure that the relevant country has an adequate level of protection as required by the GDPR.
- f. The Partner must keep secure all security information which he/she/it uses to access information provided by the Company, both on the Partner and a third party's systems. Security information may include, but shall not be limited to passwords, digital identifiers/certificates and encryptions. The Partner shall inform the Company as soon as the Partner becomes aware of anyone ceasing to be eligible to access any of the Company or a third party's system to which the Partner has access.
- g. Where the Partner chooses to deal with the Company online, the Partner may be subject to additional terms and conditions relating to the Company online services which can be found on the applicable website.
- h. Email communications shall not necessarily be secured and may be intercepted or changed after its sent. The Company does not accept any liability where such communications are changed or are not delivered.
- i. The Partner shall ensure that he/she/it has adequate security measures in place (including but not limited to any measures the Company asks the Partner to take) and that the appropriate measures are in place to prevent harmful viruses being sent to the Company electronically.

13.2.4. The referred Party's Personal Data

- a. The Partner shall warrant to the Company that, where the Partner collects the prospects' personal data and Client's personal data, that:
 - i. The data were collected fairly and lawfully, and
 - ii. The disclosure of such data to the Company is fair and lawful; and
 - iii. The Company's use of such personal data for the purposes of carrying out its obligations under this Agreement shall not breach the Data Protection Legislation. and
 - iv. the Partner ensures that the prospects and clients are informed of the collection and transfer of their personal data in plain and understandable language in a fair and lawful way. In case those terms and information are disclosed to prospects and clients in the Partner's Privacy Policy, the document shall always be easily accessible and available for download.
- b. Both Parties shall comply with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in respect of such personal data. If a Party receives a subject access-, transformation-, deletion- and/or any other request in relation to personal data held by the other, granted to the data subject by the GDPR, the other Party holding such personal data shall do all things as are reasonably necessary to assist the Party in receipt of the subject access request to perform such compliance obligations.
- c. If the Partner is unsure what his/her/it obligations are or how the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) applies to the Partner or his/her/it organization, the Partner shall seek further guidance from the Data Protection Commissioner of his/her/it country and / or seek professional legal advice. The Company shall not be able to advise the Partner on the Partner's obligations under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- d. To the extent that either of the Party is acting as a data processor on behalf of the other, the Party acting as data processor shall:
 - i. Bring into effect and maintain appropriate technical and organizational measures to prevent unauthorized or unlawful processing of any personal data of the Client or Potential Client and accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, any personal data of the Client or Potential Client, including but not limited to taking reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of employees having access to the Client's personal data. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing such measures shall ensure a level of security appropriate to the harm that might result from such unauthorized or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage of the Client's personal data and the nature of the Client's personal data to be protected.

- ii. Only process the Client's personal data on behalf of the data controller in accordance with, and for the purposes set out in, this Agreement and in accordance with instructions received from the data controller from time to time.
- iii. Promptly notify the Client about any matter which may cause the data controller to become non-compliant with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) applicable to the processing and provide such information about remediation as the data controller shall reasonably require.
- iv. Promptly notify the data controller about any accidental or unauthorized access which may affect the Client's personal data and provide such information about remediation as the data controller shall reasonably require.
- v. Not transfer the Client's personal data outside of the European Economic Area without the prior written consent of the data controller;
- vi. Allow representatives of the data controller to audit the data processor's compliance with the requirements of this clause on reasonable notice and/or, at the option of the data controller, on request to provide the data controller with evidence of its compliance with such requirements; and
- vii. Use all reasonable endeavors to assist the data controller to comply with any obligations imposed on the data controller by the GDPR in relation to any of the Client's personal data including without limitation:
 - providing the data controller with reasonable assistance in complying with any subject access request served on the data controller under the Data Protection Legislation;
 - promptly informing the data controller about the receipt of any subject access request received by the data processor in relation to the Customer's personal data processed pursuant this Agreement;
 - complying with the data subject's "right to be forgotten" as per the GDPR should such a request be forwarded to you by the official communication ways by Company and does not withstand any legal obligations both or any of the parties of this agreement are underlying;
 - in regards to data subjects requests forwarded to the Partner regarding the above mentioned right or any other rights, the Partner shall inform the Company promptly of such requests to ensure compliance.

13.3. LIABILITY

13.3.1. Indemnification

The Partner hereby agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Company and any of its subsidiaries and Partners, Directors, Senior Executives, Supervisory Board members, officers, employees, agents, shareholders, and representatives from and against any claims, actions, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, settlements, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees or justifiable legal fees) which (directly or indirectly) stem from or arise out of:

13.4. SCOPE

13.4.1. This Agreement shall be non-negotiable and overrides any previous or other agreements, arrangements, express or implied statements made by the Company unless the Company, in its sole discretion, determines that the context requires otherwise. If the Partner do not agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Partner shall cease using our services and inform the Company in writing immediately by sending an email to the email address provided to the Partner during the Partner Online Account Opening Procedure.

13.4.2. This Agreement shall not constitute a joint venture and neither Party shall be the agent of the other. The Partner shall strictly not be authorized to act as an agent, appointed representative or as any authority of the Company. The Partner shall not make any recommendations, give advice, accept any commitment and/or guarantee and/or accept any responsibility for any matter whatsoever for or on behalf of the Company.

13.4.3. The Partner shall not without the prior express written consent of the Company assign, transfer, charge, sub-license, outsource or deal in any other manner with this agreement or any of its rights and/or liabilities under it. Any fictitious assignment, transfer, sublicense or outsource in breach of this Article shall not transfer any rights to the alleged assignee and shall be void. The Company shall be entitled, including but not limited to assign, transfer, charge, sub-license or deal in any other manner with this agreement or any of its rights and/or liabilities under it.

13.5. COMMUNICATION

13.5.1. Notices

- a. Unless specified otherwise in this Agreement, any communication or written notice by the Company under this Agreement shall be given in writing to the email address provided by the Partner during the Partner Online Account Opening Procedure (the 'Registered Email Address') or, if this changes, to the new email address provided by the Partner.
- b. All communications sent by the above delivery method shall be deemed transmitted by the Company, whether received by the Referring Party or not.

13.5.2. Official Language

This Agreement may be translated into other languages but, in the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity as to the meaning of any word or phrase in any such translation, the English version shall prevail.

13.6. CONFIDENTIALITY

13.6.1. Each party shall keep confidential all confidential and secret information of the other disclosed to it in relation to or in the course of this Agreement and shall use them only to perform this Agreement and disclose it only to those of its employees and/or authorized representatives who have a need to know such information to perform this Agreement and no other Third Party and shall not after termination of this Agreement use or disclose any confidential information for any reason.

13.6.2. Article 12.6.1 above shall not prohibit the use or disclosure of information:

- a. which is in or comes into the public domain without breach of this Agreement by the recipient thereof ("the Recipient");
- b. if and to the extent required by any law or regulatory rule, provided that unless not practicable/permisible in the circumstances the Recipient shall give the Disclosing Party notice of any such proposed disclosure before the same is made.

13.6.3. The Partner shall keep confidential and shall not disclose to anyone except with the prior written approval of the Company, during and subsequent to the relationship with the Company, all material information it receives during the course of business with the Company, including, but not limited to, Client information, strategies, future plans and anything else related to the business of the Company which shall be deemed as confidential.

13.7. AMENDMENT

13.7.1. The Partner acknowledges that the Company reserves the right, at any time and under its sole discretion, to unilaterally amend, modify, update, or change any of the terms of this Agreement, Addendum, Appendices or Annexes.

13.7.2. All the amendments shall come into effect seven (7) business days after the announcement. It is the Partner's own responsibility to visit the company's website on a regular basis in order to ensure that (s)he/it is aware of the latest version of this Agreement.

13.7.3. In case where the Partner does not agree with the amended Agreement, (s)he/it is obliged to terminate the Agreement by notifying the Company in writing within seven (7) business days from the date that the amended Agreement comes into effect. If the Partner does not act within the seven (7) day limit, his/her acceptance of the amended Agreement shall be assumed, and the terms of the amended Agreement shall apply to the Partner.

13.8. SEVERABILITY

13.8.1. Each of the provisions of this Agreement is severable. Accordingly, if any provision(s) of this Agreement is or becomes, at any time, invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any respect under the law of any jurisdiction, that shall not affect or impair the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.

13.8.2. The Parties agree that any invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision shall be deemed to be automatically replaced by the valid, legal and enforceable provision satisfactory to any relevant competent authority that comes as close as possible to the commercial and legal effect sought by the replaced provision.

13.9. SURVIVAL ARTICLES

Clauses 6, 7, 9, 11, 12.1, 12.3, 12.4 12.6 as well as provisions which shall be necessary for the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement shall continue to apply even after the termination or expiry of this agreement.

13.10. GOVERNING LAW

13.10.1. The Partner accepts that this Agreement and all transactional relations between the Partner and the Company shall be deemed to have been concluded in the Seychelles and must be interpreted in accordance with its Law. The Partner irrevocably agrees that the competent courts for the settlement of any disputes which may arise from this Agreement between the Parties shall be the district court(s) of the Seychelles. The Partner hereby relinquishes the right to object to the lack of territorial or subject-matter jurisdiction of a court.

13.10.2. The Parties shall conduct every effort to resolve any dispute before involving any Court and/or Authority.

13.10.3. This Article does not deprive the Company of the right to lodge a complaint against the Partner in any other court of jurisdiction, nor does it deprive us of the option to lodge a complaint in other jurisdictions in the event of a complaint covered by one or more jurisdictions, regardless of whether this happens at the same time, as long as that jurisdiction's law permits it.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

14.1.1. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement along with the other relevant Terms as stated herein, including but not limited the Code of Conduct, the Marketing Guidelines and the Company's Complaint Handling Policy constitutes the inseparable General Partner Terms & Conditions and the related consensus between the Parties regarding the object of this Agreement and supersedes all previous or subsequent verbal or written agreements or understandings between or among the Parties hereto with respect to the subject-matter of this Agreement, except for the modifications to the agreement offered by us under Article 12.7. Amendments above.

14.1.2. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that the conclusion of this Agreement does not imply any statement, declaration, guaranteed assurance, agreement, declaration of obligation, promise or assurance (whether issued intentionally or unintentionally) by any party (whether a party to this agreement or not) which is not explicitly stipulated in this agreement. Each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally relinquishes all claims, rights and damages which, except for this clause, it could assert in connection with the aforementioned. Nothing in this section should limit or exclude a liability for fraud.

14.1.3. The heading and titles contained in this Agreement are included for convenience only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the terms of this Agreement or its interpretation

14.1.4. No Terms of this Agreement may be waived unless such waiver is in writing and signed by both Parties. No oral or implied waiver shall be recognizable.

Schedule 1

Marketing Guidelines

The guidelines below are applicable to all marketing materials and communications that are produced by any Affiliates. Please ensure the marketing materials always adhere to the following guidelines.

Marketing materials include websites, advertisements, banners, flyers, articles, brochures, newspapers, magazines etc.

Regulatory checklist for Marketing Materials:

- The material must be Fair Clear and Not Misleading
- There is a balance between the risks and the benefits of the product.
- The material does not describe a feature of a product or service as “guaranteed”, “protected” or “secure”, or use a similar term.
- The material does not create unrealistic impressions of the product, for example: “You can get 100% return on your investment”, or “trading Forex is simple and easy” or “trading Forex will make you rich” or any similar term/phrase.
- There is an appropriate and fit for purpose risk warning.
- There is a suitable risk warning such as:

“CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage. Investors should consider whether they understand how CFDs work before investing.”

The risk warning should state that “your capital is at risk” or a similar term/phrase.

The risk must be:

Displayed prominently and in bold font. Remain floating and on every linked webpage (on both website or via any other medium). Enclosed within clearly defined borders and presented prominently in the advertisement.

- No untrue or misleading claims, statements and comments should be made. For example, does not provide misleading headline claims such as; “Bullwaves Global is the world’s best FX broker” or or any similar term/phrase.
- No financial advice or personal recommendations must be given in the marketing material.
- Provision of past performance figures or statements is NOT permitted e.g. “over the last year investors made a 30% return on their investments”

- Fees, charges and commissions where provided are correct.
- Where fees, charges and commissions are provided, they are correct and not hidden in small print or inserted into the disclaimer.
- The risk warnings are clear, visible and not hidden or their importance diminished by secondary statements.
- Where any externally derived data or award is provided, the source and date is provided.
- There is no use of internal jargon or abbreviations that the customer may not understand.
- Where claims have been made such as “Bullwaves Global has won an award for the best Affiliate programme 2026”, such claims be substantiated with evidence.
- The marketing material does NOT describe the regulatory status of the firm.
- The marketing material is clearly identifiable as a financial promotion and is not disguised as or may not be mistaken for something else. For example, this can be achieved by the addition of the following statement “this is a promotional material”.
