Name of the Instrument:

The Paraiba Velvet

Special Story of the Instrument:

One of the main features of this Princess Isabella guitar is the special turquoise velvet that has a crocodile skin-like texture.

The "Flora Aurum" fingerboard inlay is made of 18k white gold and contains 7 flawless and perfectly white brilliant cut diamonds.

For the pot knobs, I wanted gemstones that matched the color of the fabric and its reflection. After a long search at various gemstone dealers I found 2 brilliant cut Paraiba tourmalines that fit the color perfectly.
